The Parlor Magazine.

J. T. Headley, Editor.

THIS Magazine, formerly under the care of D. Mead, commences its Fourth Volume under the editorship of J. T. Headley, author of "Napoleon and his Marshalls," "Washington and his Generals," "Letters from Italy," &c &c. We hazard nothing in saying that this Magazine is destined to fill a large place in public estimation; that it will not only maintain its present enviable reputation, but earn to itself a far higher popularity, and become the companion of many a circle to which it is now a stranger, gladdening by its presence, while it exerts an influence pure, elevating and healthful. The editor will bend his energies to make this THE MOST POPULAR MAGAZINE of the day, and while availing himself of assistance from the best writers, he will draw freely from his own exhaustable store.

It will continue to maintain its high moral tone, and nothing will be admitted into its columns which will minister to the corrupt passions and tendencies of youth, or which the author "dying would wish to blot."

The design is to offer the public a Magazine containing all the attraction and interest of the lighter periodicals, while it moves in a different path, and is not exposed to the same objections.

It is issued monthly, commencing with May containing 32 pages of original matter, printed on fine paper, in handsome covers, with a splendid steel engraving, and colored flower in each number, with occasional music and is got up in every respect in the best style of the art, making a yearly volume of 384 pages, full of choice ..., and forming an elegant ornament to the parlor table, or a rich and valuable present to a friend.

Back numbers and volumes always on hand. Price only $2 per year, if in advance. 3 copies for $5. 8 copies for $12.

The Press and the public are daily awarding us the very highest testimonials of the editorial ability of our Magazine, and the beauty and taste with which it is embellished, placing it in the very first rank in every respect, among the thousands of which we select the following:

"Under the editorial charge of J. T. Headley, the most popular writer of the age, we predict a still stronger interest will be taken in this already well known and valuable Magazine.—The name of Headley alone is a sure guaranty of success."—Farmer and Mechanic.

"The new editor has infused that intense and absorbing interest into its pages for which his writings are remarkable. The work has gained in the power which enchains the sympathies and rivets the attention, without losing anything of its former chaste and elevated morals and style."—Windham Co. Democrat.

"The editor is well known as one of the most brilliant writers of the day."—American Agriculturist.

"Their motto is to mingle the beautiful with the good."—N. E. Review

"Mr Headley contributes to the present May number liberally in his usual pleasing style."—N. Y. Tribune.

"His talents will add greatly to the interest of the publication, and have great influence in extending its circulation"—Christian Intelligencer

"This very neat monthly is gaining favor, refining and softening the roughness of life, and blessing the family where it alights, 'Esto perpetua'."—Massachusetts Eagle.

"This is unquestionably the best Magazine of its kind in the country."—Nantucket Enquirer.

"Beautiful as it is valuable."—Lutheran Observer.

FRESH ARRIVAL OF

I. L. St. JOHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

A Knowledge of the value of these Pills is alone necessary to bring them into general use as a family medicine. Thousands have already used them, who give them a decided preference to all other kinds. The proprietor is so confident of their virtues that he has instructed his agents that in case any person after giving them a trial, does not prefer them to Gregory's, Lee's, Peter's, and all other anti-billious Pills, if the the trouble will be taken to return the balance of the box, to refund the whole money. They are not like many of the quack medicines of the day, held up as an infallible cure for all diseases, but if timely administered, will be found very efficacious in Billious and remittant fevers, fever and ague, costiveness, cholic, worms, pain in the bowels, flatulence, indigestion, heartburn, pain of the head, back or breast, &c.

We the undersigned citizens of Seneca county, Ohio, have made use of St. John's Pills, either ourselves or in our families, and consider them the best Pills in use for the Billious diseases of this western country:

Wm. Lang, Prosecuting Attorney; U P. Coonrod, Sherriff; W. H. Kessler, County Recorder; John Rosenberger, Isaac Mundy, Geo. Stoner, and Isaac Wiseman, Justices of the Peace; Israel P. Haines, Joseph Volmer, Seldon Graves, John Shinefelt, John Michael, P. Beaver, Alexander Ingram, James D ... man, W. Baugher, Michael Reimond, James C Pease, S. P. Appleton, John Pride, L. M. Loomis, J. W. Pierson, Thomas Loyd, Isaac DeWitt, John Wander, Abraham Smith, Benjamin Tomb, G. Caristhn, C. Y. Pierson.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The great demand for these pills has already induced unprincipled men to counterfeit them. The public are therefore cautioned against purchasing any that are not signed by the proprietor with a pen upon the wrapper enclosing each box. To counterfeit which is a State's Prison offence.

GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S ADVERTISEMENT for 1847.—THE CHEAP AMERICAN REMEDY—Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture.—This valuable Panacea is now being introduced into Europe, the East and West Indies, South America and all other parts of the globe, where disease exists in any form. The United States and the Canadas have for the past three years severely tested the virtues which the proprietor, upon the introduction of this medicine, hesitated not to say it possessed. In introducing this GREAT VEGETABLE REMEDY, the most startling promises were made, on the part of the medicine—so novel was the theory—the principles upon which the cures were to be effected, that people threw up their hands and cried, what next! Even credulity, startled with surprise, and the so called "Faculty" made themselves merry over the "new humbug." But mark the result—the three years have passed away—public opinion, the voice of millions, and more of observing individuals, have stamped this REMEDY the most singular, wonderful, incomprehensive, and miraculous curative power ever produced. The ONE GREAT DISEASE, which the proprietor of this medicine had the presumption to say existed, and that ALL various diseases were but secsecondary, has now millions of believers.—They must believe, for they have witnessed the effect of this restorative, It has conquered ALL cases, by simply conquering the ONE. The "Old School" now open their eyes. Their old dogmas, like the morning mist, fly before the light of truth, and common sense now seeks a road to health its own way, instead of closing its eyes, and being led. The truth of the principle upon which this article cures is established, and the statement is again boldly, most emphatically, most decidedly reiterated: This medicine will drive from the body every disease which has a name—every disorganization of the system which can exist. If bone and muscle remain, this medicine will restore to a perfect state. The old calomel, bleeding, blistering system is about to fall. The proof daily presenting itself of the truth of our theory, is a prop out of the old structure, which will soon tumble to the ground, a shapeless mass of ignorence and deception.

Invalids resort at once to this medicine. It is a strictly vegetable remedy, the product of our own soil—a compound of twenty two ingredients. Each root has its particular part of the system to act upon, and this action is always produced—its effect upon the whole system is immediately apparent. Testimony of the highest character is daily coming to the proprietor full of truth, and you will always see names, places and dates. Not a particle of false evidence is offered on the part of this great curative, The most careful perusal of the pamphlet is desired. It gives the character of all the secondary complaints which prevails, and which have been cured by this article. Evidences of cures in some of the most dreadful cases of lingering complaints which it has been the fortune of any medicine to cope with, is found—cases which have been left to die. Hundreds in every large city of our Union and the Canadas have to thank this article for their lives, and so do they, as letters in the possession of the proprietor will show.

This great medicine will cure DROPSY, in every stage; Gravel, and all kinds of difficulty in the urinary organs; complaints of the kidneys-weakness of the back; female irregularities immediately checked, and a healthy tone given to the system. Let every female at once resort to this safe medicine, and use no other. Diseased liver, indigestion, bilious complaints, dyspepsia instantly relieved: rheumatism, gout, &c., produced by inaction of the blood, will always find relief; inflamed lungs, cough, even consumption, unless the patients and their medical advisers were deceived, has been cured by this medicine; scorfula, and all eruptive diseases, piles, erysipelas, Inflammation of the eyes, palpitation of the heart, sick headache, jaundice, fever and ague—the whole catalogue might be named—seek this remedy; buy no other.

Put up in 30 oz. bottles, at $2; 12 oz. bottles, $1 each.

Be careful that you are not imposed upon.—Each bottle has the words "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture" blown upon the glass—the written signature of "G. C. Vaughn" on the direction, and G. C. Vaughn, Buffalo, stamped on the cork. None others are genuine

Prepared by Dr. G. C. Vaughn, and sold at the principal agency, 207 Main street, Buffalo, at wholesale and retail, to whom all communications must come post paid.

Smith's Tonic Syrup.

FOR THE CURE OF AGUE AND FEVER OR CHILLS AND FEVER. This remedy has now been extensively used throughout the west and south-west for the last seven years and within that period has permanently cured over 200,000 cases, in all its various forms, many of which had been from one to three years standing, and had resisted all the usual remedies known in this country, and in no case did this medicine fail where the directions were followed properly. Such is its invariable success that a large number of respectable practitioners of medicine, in various parts of the country use and prescribe it in preference to Quinine and all other remedies.

The public are assured that it is not only certain in its effects as a tonic, but being composed entirely of vegetable medicines, is perfectly innocent in any cases or circumstances, and may be given to females, infants, and all persons of debilitated and delicate constitutions without the least fear whatever of any unpleasant effect.

This medicine is composed of articles of the primest and purest quality, and is always made by the proprietor in person, after the established forms of pharmacy, (which cannot be said of the various Tonics now flooding the western and south-western country,) and in this respect alone is rendered greatly superior to the remedies usually prepared and sold in this country.

By its salient and powerful diaphoretic properties, added to its Tonic qualities, it is rendered eminently superior to Quinine and other remedies, as a general and popular Tonic in all cases whatever where Tonics are proper to be administered. The proprietor would therefore respectfully invite practitioners and the public generally to give it a fair trial, and they will then be convinced of its great superiority over all other remedies now in use for the purposes specified.

For the satisfaction of those not acquainted with its valuable curative powers, the following letters and certificates are given from the many in his possession:

We, the undersigned, do hereby cheerfully certify, that we have sold largely Dr Smith's Tonic Syrup in our neighborhood, and in very many cases have seen and known it used among our customers, and from what we have seen and known of its use, do, without hesitation recommend it to our friends and the public generally, as the most speedy, permanent and innocent remedy that we have ever seen or heard of in the cure of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever, and we do believe that it will in no case fail to cure if the directions are properly followed,

THE EXPLOSION OF A GUN-COTTON FACTORY.—Feversham, Saturday night.—Messrs. Hall's works cover an area exceeding twenty acres in extent. The gun-cotton manufactory, which has only been in work about six months, is situated in that portion of the premises known as the Marsh Works, which form the northern boundary of Messrs. Hall's estate.—These works, until the manufacture of gun-cotton was commenced, were used as powder-mills, and two of the four buildings, of which the range consists, are still used for the same purpose. Each of these buildings occupies an area of about forty feet square, and they are severally divided from each other by mounds of earth about forty feet high, having a base of about the same extent, after the fashion of ordinary powder-mills—these mounds being intended to prevent the explosion of one building affecting either of the adjoining erections.

The buildings are very massive, the brick-work of the walls being eighteen feet thick.—They consist of one floor only, and those which are devoted to the manufacture of the cotton are divided into four compartments, known as the drying room, the packing department, the labelling department, and the cooperage, so called. Inserted in the wall of the drying-room is an immense iron chamber, or cauldron of a slightly conical form; this receives the heat from the furnace, and communicates it to the drying-room, where the important process of drying the cotton is carried on. No fire whatever is allowed to exist within the building, and the same precautions as to the non-admission of the workmen in shoes, &c., generally adopted in powder-mills, exist in the buildings devoted to the gun-cotton manufacture. The process of preparing the cotton may be thus briefly described:

The wool is first steeped in a solution of acids, after which it is washed in clean spring water; it is then drained of all the moisture it contains and taken into the drying room, where it is carefully dried and subsequently packed in cartridge paper tubes, in which form the article is sold. The steeping process is carried on in a separate building, erected for the purpose, in the rear of the stove (No 4.)—This building contained some massive cauldrons and other machinery.

On Wednesday morning, just previous to the explosion, the works were in full operation. Between forty and fifty persons were employed in the two cotton stoves in the steeping department. Nothing seems to have occurred calculated to occasion the slightest apprehension up to the moment of the accident taking place. As near as can be ascertained, about a quarter past eleven, while the work people employed in the (No. 4. stove) were actively engaged, the explosion occurred.

The effect, a few moments after it took place, can scarcely be imagined. The No. 4 stove was literally blown to atoms. Of the massive brickwork forming this structure, not one brick remained upon another; and, marvellous as it may appear, the earth, to the depth of five or six feet beneath the foundation, was torn up and rent into chasms, as if by the shock of an earthquake. The materials, rising first into the air to an immense height, fell in different directions, and a large portion clearing the mound of earth which separated the buildings Nos. 4 and 3, came with great violence on the roof of the latter. This was but the work of a moment, and the next instant the stove, (No. 3,) the contents of which had, beyond a doubt, ignited from the fallen materials of No. 4, exploded in a similar manner. With the exception of the chimney, which is still standing, this building is reduced to a wreck. Nos. 1 and 2 (still used as powder-mills) were extensively injured, and almost wholly unroofed; while the building in which the steeping process is carried on, situated as before stated in the rear of No. 4, was blown completely down, and the massive machinery which it contained forced into a stream which skirts the northern boundary of the premises.

Of the unfortunate beings at work in the building No. 4, scarcely a vestige was discovered near the scene of the explosion.—Arms, legs, and portions of shattered trunks were thrown in every direction, and, in some cases, to an incredible long distance. The remains of the unfortunate creatures engaged in No. 3 were less mutilated. Some of the parties in No. 3 were extricated alive. One youth, named Bunting, had a most miraculous escape. He was busy at work when the explosion took place; and having momentarily lost his senses by the shock, on recovering, found himself buried up to his middle in ruins, though without having sustained any serious injury. Some of the poor wretches seriously mutilated in this building met a miserable end, being burned to death before they could be extricated.

The extraordinary effect of the explosion on the buildings in the neighborhood and on the corn fields in the vicinity, cannot possibly be realized except by an eye-witness. The roofs of the buildings within about a quarter of a mile of the explosion are completely stripped of their tiles, and the walls are much shaken. Even in the town of Feversham, fully a mile distant from the scene of the disaster, windows were broken and the houses otherwise damaged, in some instances. On the opposite side of the stream which forms the northern boundary of the Marsh works, is a field of wheat of some extent. The explosion has completely blasted this over a space of about two acres; and the ears, drooping and discolored, present a scene of desolation in perfect character with the adjoining ruins.

The willow trees which skirt the bank of the stream received it, and, indeed, all the trees within about fifty yards of the buildings Nos. 3 and 4, are torn up by the roots and scattered about in all directions. Those more distant are less seriously injured, but the foliage of all within a very large circle is wholly destroyed. Another remarkable instance of its power was shown in the terrible ejection from a deep well of two massive pumps, the leaden pipes of which, nearly twenty feet long, were drawn up and thrown to a very considerable distance.

The explosion was heard at an enormous distance from Feversham. At Dealand Maidstone, and even at some places more than thirty miles from the scene of the accident, parties are described to have heard it distinctly.

It may be interesting to state that the strength of gun-cotton is just six times that of gunpowder; in other words, ten drachms of the cotton are equal to two ounces of powder.—Morning Chronicle, July 19.

Improvements in Manufactures.—The Scientific American announces a revolution in calico printing as at hand; house paper is to be printed so cheap that blocking must be done away. Instead of two or three weeks now required to engrave a copper roller of the highest finish, the inventor, with a few diamond pointed gravers and acids, gets up one in as many hours. He has also invented a machine for shearing cloth, which shears five or six hundred pieces in a day, and does the work better than is now done by the old process.

From the Cleveland Plaindealer.

THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN—THE SOUTH ORGANIZING.

What is to be the complexion of parties or the character of issues in the next presidential campaign, it is difficult now to tell. We live rapidly in times like the present. Events crowd upon events, and questions and issues come and go in such quick succession, that it would be unsafe to-day what would be the ruling consideration for action to-morrow.

But one thing is quite clear, that we are on the eve of a sectional war, the North against the South; a war of words only, and to be decided by the votes of the people. In every political assemblage of the South, we find this issue boldly presented, and among the people a fierce determination to have it met.

The Democratic State Convention of Alabama met a few days since at Mobile. The Hon. R. W. King, presided, and made a speech upon the paramount importance, at this time, of the slavery question, and the necessity at this time for harmony and union in the South. The Montgomery Advertiser of the 8th inst., contains the report of a committee, 'appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the convention upon state and federal affairs.' The first resolution recommends the adoption of some efficient system of 'finance and taxation' for the extinguishment of the State debt. The second bears testimony to the 'salutary operation of the Independent Treasury system.' The third is in condemnation of the 'obsolete idea.' The fourth, fifth, and sixth, are Free Trade. The seventh approves a vigorous prosecution of the Mexican war 'for attaining the only legitimate end of all war—lasting peace, based upon indemnity for the past and security for the future.' The eighth, while it deprecates a war of conquest, expresses the conviction that in adjusting a peace with Mexico, no other mode of obtaining indemnity for the expenses of the war, and for past injuries and aggressions will be available to the United States, except that of receiving from Mexico a portion of her territory contiguous to our own.' The ninth denies the right of the general government to make any discrimination between the States of this Union, by which any shall be deprived of its full and equal rights in such territory.' The tenth condemns the 'Wilmot proviso' as in derogation of southern equality, and tending directly to subvert the Union itself.

The last resolution is as follows:

12. Resolved, That as one of the most effective modes, of 'firm, united and concerted action,' recommended by the above resolutions—of resisting the interference by the general government with a view to establish a discrimination, as degrading as it is injurious, to the slave-holding States—the members of this convention solemnly pledge themselves to each other, and recommend to their fellow citizens in those States to withhold their votes for the office of President of the United States, from any citizen who shall not previously to the election, distinctly, unequivocally avow his opposition to all such inferences.'

This language is plain and emphatic. The South claim the right to carry slavery not only into Mexico, but into Oregon; and the man who does not distinctly and unequivocally' acknowledge this right, cannot be supported for the Presidency by southern voters—This too, is the doctrine of a Democratic State Convention in a Democratic State. As a Democrat, and an independent journalist of the north, we disavow all such doctrines.—They form no part of the Democratic creed, either in the west or the north. Mr. Calhoun, and his set of slavery propagandists, can take whatever course they choose. The Democratic party are stronger without them than with them.

JOHN TYLER HEADING THE WHIGS

After many abortive efforts upon the part of the whigs to head John Tyler, it seems that he has at length succeeded in turning the tables upon the hopeless party. We give the story as we heard it:

"It seems that during the last winter or spring, a county court in Mr. Tyler's county, composed of several Whig Justices of the Peace, with a view to mortify and humble Mr. Tyler for his political sin of turning Democrat, appointed him overseer of a road, with the intention of enforcing the duties, or impose the fine, in which case made and provided in the statute.

"The law of Virginia it seems, specifies no limited time for working on and repairing roads, but its terms declare they shall be put and kept in order. Accordingly, Mr. Tyler being notified of the honor conferred, sat about to discharge his duty. To the delight of his patron Justices and whig brethren, he was seen riding through the district, summoning the hands to work. The joke was too good to be lost, and many a whig countenance was lit up with smiles at the thought that the ex-President was at length harnessed to such a mortifying duty. Old John, however, had too often dodged their leaders to be headed by the small fry.

"He commenced his labors as a faithful public servant. The road was undulating, he commenced to cut down the hills, fill up the gullies and ravines, and make it a good level turn-pike road. Day by day he 'plied himself to his work: hills and vales attested his industry. The effect of his diligence was not only visible upon the road itself, but the neighboring farms began soon to show that just in proportion as the road succeeded, fences, hedges, ploughing, carting, and every other plantation service was neglected. For this there was no remedy. The hands were all upon the road. The joke became in truth, a serious matter. A public meeting of the whole neighborhood was called. Headed by the august Justices, they proceeded to the scene of operations, and begged Mr. Tyler for God's sake, for their sakes, (and perhaps for the sake of Ireland) to quit working on the road, and let the hands go home. Mr. Tyler replied "that the law made it his duty to put the road in good order and keep it in such. There were yet a good many bad hills to be cut down and ravines to be filled; till that was done, he felt it his bounden duty to go on. He should dislike to be presented to the grand jury for neglect of duty immediately after his appointment." The Justices promised to excuse him if he should be indicted before them. "He preferred to place himself above the clemency of the court." The Justices then begged him to resign. Mr. Tyler replied "that offices were hard to obtain these times, and having no assurances that he should soon obtain another, he could not think, under the circumstances, of resigning."

"It is said he kept the hands at work upon the road, widening, excavating, filling, gravelling, and McAdamising, for nearly 3 months, making one of the finest roads in the Union. It is thought by many that the road will not need repair for the next century. Wonder if the whigs will make another effort to head him!"—Raleigh Standard.

ANOTHER "CHILLING SHOWER-BATH."—In the last Charleston (Va.) Spirit of Jefferson we find the following damper upon whig hopes. It needs no comment:

A CORRECTION.—We have seen a paragraph circulating among several of the whig papers of the country, to the effect that Lieutenant Washington, of the Virginia regiment, who is now on furlough at home for his health, has written a letter to the Charleston Free Press, in which he says that General Taylor is a whig—opposed the present tariff and the sub-treasury—and ready to run, of course, as a full-blooded whig candidate. We are authorized to say that Lieutenant Washington—[himself a whig, we learn.—ENQUIRER.]—has never addressed such a letter to the "Free Press," or any other press, and denies that General Taylor, from conversations he has heard from him, ever declared himself a whig, and opposed to the present measures of the democratic party. So far from it, General Taylor expressly disclaims being a party man, and expresses his unalterable determination not to identify himself with either party. If the people elect him, he is willing to serve them; but it must be of their free and unsolicited pleasure, and not through any instrumentality of his own. As with this rumor, so we presume with the hundred others, which declare Gen. Taylor to be a whig, where there is not one shadow of proof to sustain it. The party of expedients have already driven themselves to the wall by their too eager haste and utter recklessness and inconsistency. What next will be their move?"

In corroboration of the above statement regarding General Taylor's politics, we can state, that in a conversation a few days since, with a well-known citizen of Indiana, who was an officer in one of our volunteer regiments in Mexico, he informed us that he had put the question direct to General Taylor, who, in reply, said to him, that he did not profess to know much about politics, or, to be much of a politician, but that he considered himself a Jeffersonian democrat. Our readers can draw their own inferences.—Indiana State Sentinel.

"FIRE IN THE REAR."—The New York Tribune asserts that General Scott's proclamation to the Mexicans, is a plagiarism from General Bonaparte's celebrated Egyptian document. The Tribune opens thus:

'The fac-simile of the document (Proclamation) will be found in the address of a certain Propagandist of a preceding generation to the inhabitants of a nation he came to subdue and fraternize.'

After which, the editor gives several extracts from each, in comparison, which it must be admitted, show a close analogy, and then, in conclusion, remarks:

"It strikes us the coincidence is too remarkable to be casual, history, it is true, affords examples of extraordinary correspondence in ideas and expressions between the productions of different ages and countries; but none, that we recollect, where not only the groundwork but the superstructure are so startlingly alike. The suspicion then is naturally awakened in the mind, that one production must be an imitation of the other; and according to the legal maxim that priority in time is conclusive of right, the merit of originality must be awarded to the Corsican.

"Nor is American imitation confined to mere appropriation of words, expressions, or ideas—it proceeds in conduct with equal fidelity. Napoleon while in Egypt, dressed like a Mussulman, swore like a Mussulman, turned his face to the East and prayed like a Mussulman—and our General, with equal liberality in religious sentiment, acts the Romanist throughout, even to the holding a lighted taper in his hand for public admiration.

This 'fire in the rear,' although a singular one, must be exceedingly annoying to Scott's friends; as it proves that the so much dreaded catastrophe the General feared some time previous to going to Mexico, is only ripening into an explosion the like of which has not before happened to a public or military man.

Difference in the quantity of Milk.—Farmers in general are not aware of the great difference there is in the richness of the milk.—In better dairies, especially, this is a point which deserves attention. The mere fact that a cow gives a large quantity of milk, is scarcely any evidence of her value for the production of butter. It is but a short time since we heard a farmer state that he had a cow which would give from 20 to 22 quarts per day, and he had till last summer, always considered her a first-rate cow; but it then happened that her milk was set separately for butter, when it was proved that only about four ounces per day could be obtained. This may be called an extreme case; but let the milk of various cows be fairly tried, and a surprising difference will often be seen. Mr. Newell, in his address before the Essex County (Mass.) Agricultural Society, observed that, according to his observation, there is much less uniformity in the milk of what we call 'native' cows than in that of the Ayrshire and Alderneys. He says:—"A few years ago I made a little experiment to test the quality of the milk of sixteen cows. A gallon of each cow's milk was set by itself, and, after standing twenty-four hours, the cream from each was churned by itself, and the quantity of butter ranged from 3 to 8 ounces." Thus it is seen that while the milk of some cows afforded a pound of butter to every 8 quarts, it required more than 21 quarts of the milk of some others to make that quantity. Will not this fact be remembered?—Alb Cul.

THE VALUE OF A PRINTER.—It is difficult to ascertain the real worth of the individual, if he be of the lighter complexion—such rarely being brought to the hammer. In Morocco, however, a white man will sell for five dollars or thereabouts, and the price may vary in other countries. The N. O. Delta, however, tells the following story, which serves to illustrate:

"Yesterday a good looking typo who belonged to the 1st Indiana regiment, related to us the following incident: Some time ago, last summer, we believe, Mr. Corrison Donovan, now in this city, the former editor of the Wabash Standard, published in Lafayette, Indiana, was clerking it on a steamboat on the Rio Grande. One day while the boat was taking in wood, our editor, with a couple of friends, went on shore for the purpose of shooting armadillos, or any other Mexican game that they might meet with. When but a short distance from the boat, they were surrounded and captured by some thirty Mexicans. One of these fellows, who could speak a little English, found out that the unfortunate editor was a printer by profession, and he immediately seized upon him as a precious prize.—Knowing his value, he set a price upon his head, and he was finally knocked down for the sum of $359! Good Heavens! that an editor should be sold so low! The poor fellow was marched off to Valladolid, the capital of Michoacan, and sent into a Mexican printing office in that lovely city, to set up villanous Mexican type. After working some time, he succeeded in escaping, and just before the battle of Cerro Gordo, he managed to fall in with Gen Scott's army, when he was quite "at home." Who will have the the temerity to say after this, that editors are not bought and sold?"

REPORTED CAPTURE OF MEXICO.

There have been reports in circulation for a few days past that General Scott had taken the city of Mexico on the 17th July, after a severe fight in which the Americans lost 500 killed and wounded. Other accounts represented that Santa Anna and General Canalizo had quarrelled about the right mode of defending the city, the latter being in favor of meeting the enemy at some point on the road, as to attempt any defence in the city would be unavailing and lead to its destruction by the Americans. In consequence of this disagreement, General Scott was said to have entered Mexico without serious opposition.

Both accounts are unfounded, or at least premature. We give below the latest accounts, by which it will be seen that General Scott had not entered the city on the 30th July, 12 days later than the time of the reported capture.

FROM MEXICO.

Movements of the Mexicans!—More Battles at Hand!!—Previous News not Confirmed!

RICHMOND, Aug. 14.

A letter from KENDALL, dated Puebla, July 30th, says—Mexican Congress assembled—decided incompetent to act in the premises.—SANTA ANNA called another meeting—Generals decided to have another battle—29,000 soldiers.

SCOTT moving—PIERCE arrived. Mexicans have the largest army yet. SANTA ANNA averse—must fight. British Minister interfering.

[The above despatch would seem to contradict all previous reports of Scott's having entered the city. This bears date some 12 days after Scott was said to have marched into Mexico. The prospects now are if the above be true, of which there can be little doubt, that a tremendous battle has been fought ere this, or that the Mexican generals have quarrelled with Santa Anna, and the city been surrendered without opposition in consequence. Be it as it may, the city is undoubtedly ours, or the Mexican Congress has given signs of considering our peace propositions.]

Gen. Taylor was still at the Walnut Springs, with 7,000 men. So soon as his force amounts to 10,000 men, he would advance on San Louis.

A rumor prevailed at Monterey, as early as the 13th ult., that Scott had defeated a large body of Mexicans near the capital, and the latter he is supposed to have taken.

The same accounts were prevalent at Matamoras a few days later.

FORT WAYNE & INDIANAPOLIS RAIL ROAD MEETING.

On Saturday evening last an adjourned meeting was held at this place, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the rail road convention, to be held at Muncietown on the 20th inst. On motion, T. Tigar was called to the chair, and Thos. M. Coombs appointed Secretary. Wm. Rockhill, Esq. explained the objects of the meeting; he stated that the citizens of the counties north and east of Indianapolis were desirous of extending the Madison & Indianapolis rail road north to some point on the Wabash & Erie Canal; that different routes were projected, some of which would intersect the proposed Cincinnati and St. Louis rail road; others contemplated uniting with the Whitewater canal at Hagerstown, or Cambridge City; but all looked to an intersection with the Wabash & Erie Canal, at some suitable point. Fort Wayne, he contended, was the most eligible point, and if proper exertions were made by our citizens we might secure it here. The citizens in all the counties on the route were warmly alive to the subject, and ready to do all in their power to secure the completion of the work; he therefore hoped that Ft. Wayne would do her duty on the occasion. Mr. S. Church stated that he had lived in the neighboring counties of Wells and Jay, and had, on former occasions, attended meetings in these counties having this object in view, and assured the meeting that the citizens of these counties were anxious the road sho'd be made, as they looked upon Fort Wayne as their market, and were desirous to have some more practicable mode of access to this point than the present impassable roads afforded. M. Jenkinson Esq., warmly seconded the project, and presented in a forcible manner the advantages that would accrue to Fort Wayne from the construction of the rail road. The trade of nearly the whole eastern and central portion of the State, as far south as Randolph and Delaware, and perhaps even further, would by it be made to centre here. This trade, he contended, would far exceed all that could be hoped for from the north, towards which the public attention had been chiefly directed; and once secured here it would be permanent, and could not be diverted to any other place. He was convinced that this rail road would do more for the trade and prosperity of Fort Wayne than all improvements which could be made.

On motion of F. P. Randall, Esq., ten delegates were appointed to attend the Muncietown convention, with power to fill all vacancies in their number. Messrs. S. Hanna, W. Rockhill, H. McCulloch, P. Hoagland, R. E. Fleming, S. Church, S. Edsall, A. B. Miller, E. F. Colerick, and J. P. Edsall, were appointed said delegates, and the meeting adjourned.

We have been surprised at the indifference manifested by our citizens towards this most important work. We fully coincide with Mr. Jenkinson, that it would add more to our business and wealth than any other work that could be constructed, and would make this place the depot of a large and fertile region, which is now compelled to seek other outlets for its produce. The stock of a rail road running through such a country, could not fail to be profitable, and with proper exertions we think much of it might be disposed of to eastern capitalists. We shall look for the proceedings of the Muncietown convention with much interest.

Sheep Killing.—Fifteen sheep, belonging to Jas. Shoaff, were killed on Wednesday night last, in a field near this city, and seven or eight others badly torn and mangled, by a couple of worthless dogs, belonging to some persons unknown. There are scores of such curs around the town which are of no earthly use to any one, and which it would be much for the public good to have destroyed.

INDIANA ELECTION—THE RESULT.

Six democrats and four whigs have been elected to Congress from this state, as follows:

Democrats.		Whigs.
2d dist.	T. J. Henley	1st dist.	E. Embree
3d "	J. L. Robinson	4th "	C. B. Smith
5th "	W. W. Wick	6th "	—— Dunn
8th "	John Pettit	7th "	Thompson
9th "	C. Catchcart
10th "	W. Rockhill

This is a whig gain of two since the last election, and what is most mortifying, is the fact that both have occurred in strong democratic districts. In the 1st, which gave Mr. Polk a majority of 1072 R. D. Owen, is beat upwards of 400 votes by Embree, whig. We had looked upon Mr. Owen's election as certain, as he is universally acknowledged to be one of the best and ablest men in the state, and had few equals and no superiors in the councils of the nation. He owes his defeat, not to any change in the politics of his constituents, but to a narrow-minded bigotry and intolerance among them, which we had hoped never to witness in this state. Mr. Owen as is well known, formerly held opinions in religious subjects not much in accordance with what is now considered othodoxy, and to this cause his defeat is to be attributed. Shame on the recreant democracy of the 1st district! In the 6th district the matter is still worse: it gave Polk 1491 majority, and now through disagreements and petty squabbles as to who should be the democratic candidate—no less than four conventions having been held—Dunn, whig, is elected by a majority of one vote.

The democrats in the south-western part of the State have done badly. In the 2d district, Henley is elected by only 42 majority, while Polk received 556. In the north, we did much better, and there can be no doubt that the democrats of this part of the State are much more reliable, more firmly attached to democratic principles, than their southern brethren.

In the Legislature the Senate will be a tie—25 democrats and 25 whigs; some strong democratic counties in the southern part of the state having elected whig Senators. It is not yet quite certain how the House stands; the State Sentinel claims that it also is a tie, while the Journal claims a whig majority of four. There will be no elections of any consequence to be made by the Legislature this year.

VIRGINIA.—Mr. Meade, (dem.) has been elected to Congress, in place of the late Gen. Dromgoole, deceased.

KENTUCKY.—We have done well in Kentucky—much better than we had reason to expect. Four Democrats and six whigs are elected to Congress, being a democratic gain of one. The Legislature, of course, is whig.—A large majority of votes were given in favor of a convention to amend the constitution.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 11th, sums up the result of the Congressional Election thus:

DEMOCRATS.
1st District	Lynn Boyd,
2d "	B. L. Clarke,
3d "	Samuel Peyton,
9th "	Richard French.
WHIGS.
4th District	Aylett Buckner,
5th "	J. B. Thompson,
6th "	Green Adams,
7th "	Garnett Duncan,
8th "	C. S. Moorehead,
10th "	Jno. P. Gaines.

John P. Gaines, the member elect from the 10th district, is the Major Gaines who is now a prisoner in Mexico.

ALABAMA.—We have by the Cincinnati Enquirer the following. Eight counties which gave Chapman, democrat, for Governor, 7792—and Davis, whig, 2681. There is no doubt of Chapman's election.

Geo. S. Houston, dem., is elected to Congress from the Florence District, and W. R. W. Cobb from the Huntsville Dist.

IOWA ELECTION.

THE FIRST GUN A "BABY WAKER."—The Iowa State Gazette at Burlington brings us the gratifying news of the redemption of Desmoines county. The whole Democratic ticket is elected by a majority of 70 votes. At the last autumnal election the whigs carried the county by 120 majority. This is gain enough to redeem the young State from whiggery and possumism, if the balance voted as at the last election.

Lee County—Democratic majority 106 to 125.

Henry—Whig majority 120.

Jefferson—Democratic members of the Legislature elected.

Muscatine—Whig by 8 majority on Congress.

Louisa—Whig Congressmen 100 majority.

Later accounts state that Thompson and Leffler, democrats, are elected to Congress by a handsome majority.

THUNDER STORM.—During the storm on Sunday evening last, the lightning struck the south end of the Palo Alto Hotel on Calhoun street. It struck the building near the roof and descended between the plaster and weatherboarding, tearing off a large share of the weatherboarding and destroying the plastering. Fortunately no one was hurt, although Mr. Myers the landlord and his lady had an almost miraculous escape; they had been sitting on a sofa close to the wall that was struck, and had left it scarcely a minute before the accident occurred. Had they retained their seats, it is probable both might have been killed.

It may seem strange, but it is nevertheless a fact, that there is not a lightning rod in the city. Within the last twelve months several buildings have been struck and more or less injured, but so far no person has been hurt.—With so many warnings before their eyes, we should think our citizens would provide themselves with the safeguard a lightning conductor affords.

THE CANAL LETTING.—We understand that the price at which the jobs were taken, on that portion of canal lying between Coal Creek and Terre Haute, at the recent letting, is about 25 per cent below the Engineer's estimate. The work was very properly given out in small sections, thus avoiding the evils of monopoly, heretofore so loudly complained of.—Lafayette Free Press.

A REVENUE TARIFF.—The Democratic Tariff of 1846 is truly styled a revenue tariff, for it yields a much larger amount to the coffers of the nation than any previous one ever did. By the New York Evening Post of the 7th inst., we learn that the receipts at the custom house in that city, for the week ending on that day, were one million of dollars, all paid in specie!! And this large increase of revenue has been accomplished by a judicious tariff, which, admits foreign goods at a reasonable duty, yet affords such protection to home industry that all branches of trade and manufactures are more prosperous than they ever were under a protective or prohibitory tariff. The working of this new tariff is a clear proof of the correctness of the democratic doctrine, that low duties yield the largest revenue, and are most beneficial to the country.

Member of Congress Dead.—The Hon. Edward Bradley, Member of Congress elect from the Western District of Michigan, died on the 6th inst., at the Croton Hotel, New York.—His remains were taken to his late residence at Marshall, Michigan, for interment.

IRELAND.—The total amount received from the U. S. by the Irish Relief Committee, was about half a million of dollars. The amount of individual contributions from England exceeds two millions of dollars, and the government advanced nine millions sterling, (near $45,000,000) for the relief of the distress in that unhappy country. One-half of the nine millions was given as a donation to the poor and needy, and the other half laid out in works of public improvement, or advanced to landholders, to be expended in the improvement of their lands.

In the London correspondence of the New York Journal of Commerce, we find the following notice of the proceedings in Parliament, on a motion to provide ways and means for the re-payment of the four and a half millions advanced. It certainly does not show such a spirit as ought to exist among the property holders of Ireland at this melancholy crisis. They are willing to wring the last cent from the poor as long as they can find means to pay their rents, but show a hard-hearted indifference to their sufferings, and seek to shift the responsibility of supporting them in times of suffering and distress, to other shoulders. The property holders of that unfortunate country are its greatest curse. It is time some means were adopted to make the real estate liable for the support of the needy and famishing people living on it. Until that is done, the Irish people must continue to suffer all the horrors of poverty, suffering, and famine:

"The several measures for the relief of Ireland having passed the two houses, a bill was then introduced for the recovery of public monies advanced by the government in that country. A sturdy opposition manifested itself as soon as the Commons got into Committee thereon, on the part of several of the Irish members, who boldly advanced the doctrine of repudiation, Lord Clements taking the lead. His lordship denounced the claiming of a single shilling that had been advanced, and he declared that they may try as much as they please, even to the enforcement of payment by the bayonet, and then the British government will not succeed. His lordship branded the house and government with cruelty and hard-heartedness, and stigmatized the bill as another specimen of gross injustice towards Ireland.

This extraordinary language created a powerful sensation in the house, astonishment and indignation being visible on every English and Scotch countenance, and also, to their honor, were the same feelings evinced by many Irish members.

When it is remembered that during the last fourteen months £9,000,000 sterling has been advanced, of public money to alleviate the distress in Ireland, and that by this bill £4,500,000 of that amount is to be considered a free grant, whilst the sums lent to landlords and public works, such as railways, roads, &c. will alone be recovered, astonishment and indignation give place almost to much stronger sensations, arising from the utter absence of thankfulness and gratitude.

The time has now arrived when the land of Ireland must be made to support the poor of that country, and not allowed to remain idle while the indigent are driven into exile or death. At the present moment there are 75,000 Irish paupers in Liverpool supported by the rates of that city, instead of being employed by the landlords of their native country.

The family pride of keeping up the nominal possession of large mansions and vast tracts of land must be abated, and the government ought to sell those lands if the re-payments are not made. It appears that the amassed rental of Ireland is nearly £14,000,000—the net rental £17,000,000—but taking the rental at £11,000,000 in round numbers, the fee simple of land in Ireland would be between £100,000,000 and £200,000,000.

England has certainly much to answer for in the past government of Ireland, but she is improving in her policy, and has, most assuredly, behaved most nobly towards the people of Ireland during the perilous visitation with which they have been afflicted. Still she is bound to look for repayment, and this is imperatively required by the thousands upon thousands of the suffering poor of England and Scotland.

Distress has been severe in many parts of England, and it dwells even now upon parts of the south, but how is it met?—What is the immediate relief and remedy? Why, by increased rates upon the land, upon which the people have an inherent right in their calamitous impoverishment to fall back. And then, how are these increased rates to be paid or reduced? By improved cultivation of the soil, which will require the employment of more hands, and get repaid by increased crops and augmented profits. The same plan must be adopted in Ireland. There are four millions of improvable waste land in that country, which should be made over to the state, and then resold to persons, under guarantee, who are capable of bringing those vast tracts into cultivation. Every part of Ireland will be benefited by this process, and the talk about a redundant population will become absurd and determine."

TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.—To-day we are enabled to give the remainder of the proceedings of the Convention:

The resolutions are clear, strong and forcible—at the same time manifesting that just spirit of conciliation and desire for union and harmony—which cannot but be the presage of a glorious triumph.

From all quarters, we learn that the best feeling prevades the democratic ranks. Individual preferences are forgotten, or merged in the higher determination to show that true democrats are above mere personal objects and that they are for measures, and not the men of the party. This is the spirit to actuate men who are resolved to carry forward the democratic banner, against the active and most insidious efforts of the political opponents. —Wisconsin paper.

Another Whig Falsehood.—The whig papers have been publishing a false and malignant letter from a Rev. McCalla of Kentucky, in which he asserts that the President informed him that he had appointed two Catholic priests (Messrs. Rey and McElroy) nominally as chaplains to the army, but in reality that they might act as spies!! Mr. McCalla was an unsuccessful applicant for the appointment of chaplain, and to this we may attribute this calumny on the President and atrocious slander on the catholic church.

The New York "Freeman's Journal" comments with some severity upon the [illegible] of the Rev [illegible]. It commences with saying:

"It is nearly two weeks since the Rev. Wm. L. McCalla stated in the public newspapers that the President had told him that Fathers McEllroy and Rey had been sent to Mexico, not as chaplains, but as spies. This announcement caused no little astonishment in the public mind, especially in the minds of Catholics, who feel some little concern for the reputation of their religion and of its ministers. It was supposed, however, as a matter of course, that the President would take the earliest opportunity of refuting the slander, and of rebuking its author. Up to the present time, we have looked in vain for anything like an official and direct contradiction of Mr. McCalla's statement."

The Journal then insists upon it that it is nothing but an act of justice to the Catholics to contradict the report, if it were false. But it adds the following, in the way of postscript:

"Just as we are going to press, we perceive, and with great pleasure, that the 'Washington Union' contradicts, and that by authority, the statement of the Rev. Mr. McCalla above alluded to. To our minds this is quite sufficient and satisfactory, for we have no reason to place implicit reliance on the reverend gentleman's veracity. We are delighted, therefore, to perceive that the President has put this (to Catholics) painful question at rest forever."

The Philadelphia Sun contains another letter from the Rev. Mr. McCalla, addressed to President Polk, reiterating the ridiculous statement made by him, of having been assured by the President that the Catholic chaplains, Messrs. McElroy and Rey, had been appointed as spies, and not as chaplains. The letter of Mr. McCalla is altogether unworthy of public notice, abounding in language and [illegible] that would do honor to the vocabulary of the most unchristianized of sinners, rather than a professed minister of peace and good will from God to man. Secretary Marcy comes in for a large share of his denunciation, and all the Catholics, from Bishop Hughes and President Mulledy, down to the veriest sinner in the church, are vilified and denounced as if they were the special vicegerent of the lowermost pit. His language is such as to unfit him for the lowest calling that man can be engaged in, rather than that of chaplain, and will be a sufficient justification of the President, in the minds of Protestants and Catholics, of his refusal to appoint him to a chaplaincy.

INDIANA ASBURY UNIVERSITY.—The 9th Annual Catalogue of the Officers and Students of this Institution, has been kindly furnished us by Professor Nutt: from an examination of which, we are gratified [illegible] that the University is in a most healthy and flourishing condition.

The Faculty consists of the following gentlemen:

Matthew Simpson, D. D., President, and Professor of Mental and Moral Science.

William C. Larrabee, A. M., Professor of Mathematics.

John Wheeler A. M., Professor of [illegible] Language and Literature.

Charles [illegible], A. M. [illegible] Natural Science.

Cyrus Nutt, A. M., Professor of the Greek Language and Literature.

Seniors, 10; Juniors, 9; Sophmores, 17; Freshmen, 20; Irregulars, 64; Preparatory, 117.

Sincerely do we hope that the Asbury University may continue to 'grow and prosper'—sending forth, annually, its healthful and invigorating streams of knowledge and virtue, fertilizing the moral soil—and converting the wilderness and waste places into fruitful fields and beautiful gardens; thus diffusing a humanizing and elevating influence among men—and fulfilling, to some extent, at least, its high and holy mission.—Lafayette F. Press.

GEN. TAYLOR.—The annexed letter from Gen. Taylor is in reply to one addressed to him by Peter Sken Smith, Esq., of Philadelphia, with the design of eliciting his sentiments in reference to the political opinions of the Native American party:

HD. QRS. ARMY OF OCCUPATION,
Camp near Monterey, July 9, '47.

Sir:—The Prospectus of a native American paper, to be edited by yourself, forwarded to me with attached remarks from you, has been duly received.

Upon the points alluded to in those remarks, and to which members of the Native American party require assent from those whom they favor for the Presidency, I can only say, with all candor, that if elected to that office it must be by the spontaneous will of the people at large, and without agency or pledge on my part in any particular. If ever I fill that high office, it must be untrammelled with party obligations or interests of any kind, and under none but those which the Constitution and the high interests of the nation at large most seriously and solemnly demand.

I do not desire the Presidency, and only yield thus far my assent, to be considered a candidate in the same proportion in which it is desired by the people, irrespective of party.

Your paper—the No. which you were kind enough to promise—will be very acceptable; meanwhile I can only hope it will prove useful to the country.

Very truly and sincerely, your ob't serv't.,
Z. TAYLOR.
Maj. Gen. U. S. Army.
Peter Sken Smith, Esq., Philadelphia, Pa.

☞ By the official vote, published in the Indianapolis papers, George G. Dunn, whig, is elected to Congress over Dobson, in the 6th district, by a majority of 12 votes. We see, by the Bedford Sun, that the vote of Bono township, Lawrence county, which gave Dobson 11 majority, was, from some cause not mentioned, rejected so that Dunn's real majority in the district is one [illegible].—[illegible] Dem.

HYDROPHOBIA.—The following is said to be a notice put in all the papers of Paris, every summer, by the Committee of Salubrity:

TRANSLATION.

1. Any person bitten by a mad dog or any other animal, shall immediately [illegible] wound all around [illegible] hands, so as to extract the blood [illegible] which might be in it.

2. The person will then wash the wound with Alkali mixed with water, lemon juice, lye, soap, salt water, urine, or even pure water, if no other thing be at hand.

3. During the operation of washing, let some one warm a piece of iron, but not red, and apply it to the wound, deeply, so as to cauterize it.

These precautions well observed, are sufficient to preserve from the horrid effects of hydrophobia.

VERY LATE FROM OREGON AND CALIFORNIA.

Among the passengers last night on board the Tributary, from St Joseph, were Messrs. Shaw and Bolder, direct from Oregon. They left the frontier settlement of that country on the 5th of May, and arrived at St. Joseph on the 27th ult., having made the trip in eighty-three days. The company to which they were attached was composed of nineteen persons, three or four of whom stopped on the route. They met with little difficulty on the route, except from the Pawnees, who levied contributions upon them, in the shape of clothes, tobacco, a few mules &c. Their danger might have been more serious had it not been for the invention of an old chief, who gave them the protection of forty of his warriors for a fifteen mile race, and then deemed their services of sufficient value to enforce a further contribution.

These gentlemen inform us that the emigrants to California and Oregon were making very handsome progress, being some twenty-five days ahead of the time usually occupied by the emigrants. One company, DAVIDSON'S was met at Big Sandy, and two at Green River. The Mormons, with six hundred and seventy-six wagons, were met at the forks of the Platte, on their route to California. The Twelve Apostles, as they are called, were at Fort Bridger, and it was understood that the Mormons would not proceed, this season, further than the neighborhood of the Salt Lake. All the emigrants, as we have said, were getting along very well.

At Fort Hall these gentlemen met with Mr. Samuel Brannan, and four others, who had arrived there for the purpose of piloting the emigrants on the route to California. From Mr. Brannan, who is described as the editor of the "California Star," they obtained information up to the 25th of May—the most important of which is, that Col. Fremont had been placed under arrest by General Kearney, for disobedience of orders, and ordered to the United States for trial. He either had left, or would leave immediately, for the States.—Com. Stockton was also on his way home.—The American fleet was engaged in operations against Mazatalan, Acapulco, and other towns in Lower California, and the troops had been ordered in the same direction. Gen. Kearney, it was understood, would leave for California in time to reach home in September. Things were not in a very quiet or settled condition.

These gentlemen add, if possible, to the horror of the accounts heretofore received in relation to the sufferings of the emigrating parties which failed to reach California last winter. Seventy-three of them perished in the snow, and from famine, and the living survived only by feasting on their dead companions.

THE GREAT BRITAIN.—Downpatrick, July 14.—Many persons in vehicles of all descriptions, from coach and four down to the humble jaunting car, were at the bay long before the time of high water, to witness the first effort to raise the ship with artificial appliances. At about 9 o'clock she began to move, and in less than half an hour she had evidently attained the water line. The crashing of the descending boxes was very loud, and the falling of one on the sea side, a little before ten o'clock, was tremendous. After the tide began to go back, or between 11 and 12 o'clock, the spars of three other boxes refused the strain, and snapped in two and three pieces, letting the boxes into the water. At low water, we learned on board that the ship rose fully two feet; and that in consequence of the breaking of the first spar alluded to, Captain Claxton and Mr. Brenner did not think it prudent to let her come higher, and about an hour and a half before high water the plugs were drawn, and the water let in. At this time we were informed there was more than three feet of water in her.—[illegible] ship went back about a foot; therefore, [illegible] stands another foot higher than she was [illegible]. There has been no trial to-day, but it is said that to-morrow there would be. It was said on board that she was not wanted higher than a couple of feet more. The damaged boxes are not going back; the power with the levers, screws, and fifteen boxes still in place, being supposed ample for all purposes. The southerly breeze sprung up again as we left, and if it freshens it was said no effort could be made, it being above all things necessary to keep her steady.—Newry Telegraph.

IRELAND.—The late Liberator's son Daniel has signified his intention of retiring into private life from the representation of Dundalk.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of Ardagh has addressed a letter to a Dublin paper, stating that the Pope has forwarded a sum of £50 for the relief of the poor in his diocese.

The Cork Constitution notices a rumor that in Skibberreen £2,000 of the relief fund remained unaccounted for, and that an inquiry is ordered by government.

The Limerick Examiner says:—"We have been told that in a certain county in Connaught £40,000 of the relief funds remain unaccounted for."

DUBLIN, July 17.—The green crops, so extensively sown, are in a most flourishing state. With regard to potatoes, the accounts are not at all favorable. Whilst the general crop is still unaffected, there are further well authenticated statements of the existence of a disease similar to that of the two preceding years, and occuring in various parts of the country about the same time.

Another good deed of the Roman Pontiff.—The London Daily News ahronicles the following:

On the 5th of May, that day being the feast of St. Pius, whose best achievement (his bringing about the battle of Lepanto) once rescued the south of Europe, great doings were planned to honor the name in the person of its present possessor, who bids fair to effect a similar European rescue. Hearing of their projects (for strict orders are issued to inform him of every matter) our monarch at once intimated his wish that the waste of blue lights anb Roman candles should be superseded by a general distribution of bread. To wish is to be obeyed. Sixty gentlemen met immediately at the Doria place, organized themselves for a combined effort among the affluent, and each member cheerfully climbed the stairs of the palaces allotted him in quest of donations, 7000 dollars were quickly forthcoming, and 60,000 bread tickets put in circulation. The remnant is kept to establish an infant school.

RAILROAD MEETING.

In pursuance of a previous adjournment, a meeting was held at the Court House on Saturday evening the 14th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Fort Wayne, Muncietown, and Indianapolis Railroad Convention to be held at Muncietown on the 20th instant.

Thomas Tigar, Esq., being called to the chair, and Thomas M. Coombs chosen secretary. On motion of F. P. Randall, Esq., a delegation was appointed to attend said Convention, consisting of the following gentlemen, viz: Samuel Hanna, Willliam Rockhill, H. McCulloch, P. Hoagland, Robert E. Fleming, Sylvester Church, Samuel Edsall, A. B. Miller, E. F. Colerick, and Joseph P. Edsall.

On motion of F. P. Randall, Esq., the meeting then adjourned.

☞ That is just what we have been saying all along; and if "ALL the papers in South Carolina" go for the old General, rest assured that John C. Calhoun, the "great slavery propogandist" as Mr. Benton calls him, is well satisfied with his views touching the principle involved in the Wilmot Proviso.—Lafayette Free Press.

When we are asked by our readers why we are constantly, week after week, alluding to Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture, we have only to say that with all due allowance to the merits of other articles of the kind, we must say we have been astonished at the success of this Great American Remedy. In all the complaints which belong to the human family, it acts as a curative power of most magical character—this we know. 'Tis true that we are paid for this notice—for the proprietor of the Lithontriptic, Dr. Vaughn, advertises largely with us, but reader we not paid to falsify, and we beg of you to examine his book in the Agents hands and also the Agents themselves if his Remedy is not something of great value.—See our columns.

From the Kenton Republican:

I. L. ST JOHN'S ANTI BILLIOUS PILLS.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that these very valuable pills have found their way into our midst. We are somewhat acquainted with their virtues, and hesitate not in recommending them to the public.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.—DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE.—The following extract is from the farmers' and emigrant's Hand Book, a valuable work of about 500 pages, recently published by Messrs. Appleton and Co., New York. In chapter 8, page 235, the author speaking of Fever and Ague, remarks:

"There is a most valuable medicine sold in most of the Western cities, which we can conscientiously recommend for Fever and Ague, and other bilious diseases; it is the INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, which is prepared by Dr. Osgood of New York, who has made the bilious disorders of the West his special study. We are no [illegible] to those medicines usually called patent, but we have had ample opportunities of knowing the invaluable effects of the Cholagogue in bilious cases."

The speedy and permanent relief afforded by the Cholagogue, arises from its prompt and healthy action upon the blood, cleansing it from bile and restoring it to purity. Thus striking at the root—its tendency is not simply to suspend disease, but to remove the cause, on which it depends. It is equally adapted to all ages and all conditions of the system.

PREACHING.

Notice to the Afflicted.
Alexander Tolerton
The German and English Botanic Physician and Surgeon, of Fort Wayne, Ind.,

DEEMS it proper to inform the public that he is alive and hearty and has not left the "DIGGINS,"—neither does he intend to do so, unless upon professional business—and then he will be quickly back to his office, in attendance upon those who may require his services. He still practices medicine exclusively upon Botanic principles, and with unparalleled success, as is proved by numerous certificates from the afflicted who had been given up as incurable, but now restored to perfect health, and strength. It is now about two years since he established himself in this city, during which time he has prescribed and administered medicine to thirty-eight hundred and eighty-six patients from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan, for which very liberal patronage he returns his heartfelt thanks; and from present appearances he feels great confidence that he will still be favored with the privilege of administering "aid and comfort" to the afflicted, notwithstanding the prejudice that has been sought to be raised against him by some, and and the opposition and bitter hostility manifested against him by a portion of the Medical profession.

Doctor Tolerton has made the nature and treatment of disease the study of his life, and he flatters himself that he is able to treat with success in all cases where success is yet attainable, consumption, asthma, bronchitis, inflamation of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, and kidneys; pleurisy, fever and ague, chill fever, dumb ague, (and no mistake,) remittant, typhus scarlet, puerperal, inflamatory, and hectic fevers; all billious diseases, epilepsy or falling sickness, apoplexy, giddiness, melancholy, hysteria, hypocondria, palsy, st. vitus dance, dyspepsia, water brash, cholera morbus, and infantum; bowel complaints of children, heartburn, canker, vomiting, dysentery, diarrhœa, cholic, cancer, scrofula, ulcers, mercurial diseases, fever sores, white swellings, night mare, palpitation of the heart, piles, jaundice, scurvy, gravel, urinary and secret diseases, acute and chronic rheumatism, rickets, worms, dropsies, spinal affections, inflamation of the brain, paralysis, debility and irritability of the nervous system, pain in the breast and side, coughs and colds, internal weakness and falling of the womb, and all the chronic diseases peculiar to females in their various relations. Lite. These diseases will be treated and cured upon the strict botanic vegetable system of practice, without resorting, in any case, to the use of that "Poison" called Calomel, or any other mercurial preparation. It would be well for those that are afflicted with any of the above diseases, to send for Dr. Tolerton, or give him a call, for he is fully persuaded it will be for their interest to do so. At the very worst it will do them no harm—his treatment is innocent and harmless, and that is more than can be said of the treatment of some that could be named.

He would also observe that it would be well for those afflicted with diseases of the EYES, not to forget him, for his success in the treatment of this delicate member is truly astonishing. Many have been restored by him, whose cases had been given up as hopeless by the celebrated oculist of this city, (as represented by some of the patients.) Dr. Tolerton would embrace this opportunity to say to his friends, and all whom it may concern, that the report, put in circulation by some of his medical FRIENDS, in this city, to the effect that he never went through a regular course of medical instruction in the Medical College of Cincinnatti, is wholly unfounded. Seventeen years ago he obtained a Diploma from the first Medical District of Ohio; a certificate from the censors of the Medical Institute, of his qualifications as a Physician, and a certificate of membership of the Medical and Philosophical Society [illegible] of which [illegible] and has been engaged [illegible] practice of medicine and surgery [illegible] from the [illegible] superior [illegible] will at all [illegible] cases [illegible]

In [illegible] gaged Doct [illegible] Medical assistant. Dr. Fetters highly esteemed as a Physician of skill [illegible] in Ohio, where he practiced for fourteen [illegible] with eminent success.—His departure was deeply regretted by many who had long employed him as their family physician. Office on Columbia street at the old stand, where either he or Dr. Fetters will at all times be found, unless absent on professional business. They hold themselves in readiness to attend with alacrity, all calls in the line of their profession, by night or by day; and will make it a rule that some one shall always be found at the office.

Fort Wayne, July 15, 1847. 1y2

N. B.—The Uriscopian practice, (or the examination of the Urine) will be strictly adhered to, and all patients from a distance are requested to avail themselves of the first opportunity to send in a specimen for inspection, "that a judgment of the disease may be formed from its appearance," and general satisfaction will be given.

Goods Direct from England!
Shawls, Prints, Hosiery, Needlework. &c.

MRS. DIKES invites the attention of the Ladies of Fort Wayne and vicinity, to the stock of Goods she has just IMPORTED from England, and now offers for sale in the store on Columbia Street, formerly occupied by Capt. Morgan. The stock includes an immense assortment of SHAWLS of all sorts, from the large net shawls at 31 cents, to the most beautiful Cashmeres; Handkerchiefs from 6¼. Gingham Plaids, Calicoes, Ginghams, Lawns, &c.—Beautiful Worked Muslin Caps, Cuffs, Collars, Baby's Dresses, Chemisettes, Edgings, &c. &c. A large stock of [illegible] HOSIERY; Leghorn, Birds Eye, Tuscan and English Straw Bonnets; with an endless variety of Fancy Articles, too tedious to mention.

These goods were all purchased by Mrs. D. directly at the manufactories in England and Scotland, and can therefore be warranted perfect and of the best quality, and will be sold much cheaper than ever before offered in this country, as all the profits of jobbers, merchants, importers, &c. are saved to the purchaser. An inspection will satisfy the most sceptical that greater bargains can be had than were ever before known in the place.

She has also a variety of Toys, &c. for children, Harmonicons, Steel Pens, &c. all of which will be offered at the lowest prices.

Country Merchants can be supplied with Shawls, and several articles not usually to be found in this country, at very low prices.

IN PRESENTING this well established and powerful sanative Medicine to the people of Indiana and the citizens generally of the south western States, the proprietors feel full confidence that it will act as successfully in the districts where it is now produced, as in the Ague and Fever visited regions of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, Michigan, and Western Pennsylvania and New York. In the States above mentioned, its universal celebrity as a certain, prompt and permanent is generally conceded; and it is resorted to by all thus afflicted, in preference to all other preparations claming to this disease.

Volumes of irrefragible testimony might accompany this notice; but the proprietor believes that the true method of apprising the afflicted of the perfectly curative properties of the Tonic Ferbrifuge, is the trial of its miraculous power over

Fever and ague.

So far the proprietor has found it only necessary to test its practical and health restoring blessings in the communities where it has been introduced. In the proud testimonials so elicited, the worth of the Ferbrifuge is made manifest; and it is therefore confidently sent upon its healing errand into the Valleys of the Wabash and Maumee. He sends it there as a Medicine, now regarded in the Northern and Western States as a cure whose progress is undimmed, and

In short, sustained wherever tested, (and the evidences can be furnished, if there are any inclined to be skeptical,) as

Ague Breaking, Fever Removing and Health Renewing.

As such, Mackenzie's Tonic Ferbrifuge is now offered to the Ague diseased of Indiana, and the States adjoining, and to those emigrants and travellers who may be attacked by the Ague and Fever away from their homes and families. It is submitted as an infallible remedy for the teriffic local diseases attendant upon our soils, and the miasmatic exhalations arising therefrom.

By properly adhering to the directions accompanying it, or giving head to the warnings that the system invariably gives in advance of malady, the constitution may not only be rescued from its thraldom to the ravager, but even its stealthiest approaches frustrated before allowed a foothold.

To the prudent, what has been stated above will answer as well as if a volume of verbiage were placed before them. To all those who resist this invitation to try a remedy that has always succeeded whenever applied, the only words that can be said, are—

The wise man prospers on the fool's downfall,
'Tis wisdom's part to break disease's thrall

TESTIMONIALS
OF THE EXTRAORDINARY EFFICACY OF
Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue

Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fever, Liver Complaint Jaundice, Enlargement of the Liver, Enlargement of the Spleen, and all the various forms of Billious Diseases.

☞ Extract from a communication of the Hon. WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE, of the United States Senate, late Governor of Michigan:

DETROIT, Oct. 21, 1840.

Doctor Charles Osgood,

Dear Sir:—I have read with much interest your little treatise upon the "causes, treatment and cure" of the febrile diseases which have so extensively prevailed in our country during the last few months—an interest increased no doubt, by the fact that I have individually suffered so much from them. Though I feel myself very incompetent to judge safely upon a subject so entirely professional, yet your theory seems to me well reasoned, and your conclusions just, and I think withal, that your pamphlet is calculated to produce much practical good.

* * * * * * * * *

A violent cold, induced by one of those sudden changes in the weather, which I have always found so injurious, resulted in a far more serious febrile attack—the fever assuming the more painful character of a remittent fever, having become what within a year or two past, I have heard so much of, a "chill fever." The disease continued upon me in despite of quinine and other popular remedies, when Mr. B handed me a bottle of India Cholagogue which you had the kindness to send me. I immediately commenced taking the medicine according to the directions, and before I had exhausted the contents of the bottle, was decidedly better.

It fully justified your flattering expectations, and AS A SAFE, CONVENIENT, AND POPULAR REMEDY, MY OWN EXPERIENCE, SO FAR, INDUCES ME TO BELIEVE THAT IT WILL PROVE A GREAT PUBLIC BENEFIT. I am pleased to learn that you have recently established several agencies for its disposition—though I regret that, with a view to a more general dissemination of it, you should have found it necessary to remove from your present residence among us.

With much respect I have the honor to be, &c.

Your obliged servant,
WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE.

☞ From the Hon. WM. A. FLETCHER, Chief Justice Supreme Court of the State of Michigan, to the Agent at Detroit:

Sir,—Having had repeated opportunities during the last year, of witnessing the salutary effects of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, it affords me great pleasure to bear testimony in its favor, as an invaluable remedy in cases of Fever and Ague and Bilious diseases generally. Many cases have come under my observation, of persons who have suffered for years, who have been promptly relieved by the use of one or two bottles of the Cholagogue; and I have not known a single case where relief has not been obtained from its use.

Believing that the general use of this medicine must be of the greatest importance to all those living in these parts of our country, who are subject to Bilious Diseases, I give it my general recommendation. Nor is the pleasure of this act diminished, by the fact that I am personally acquainted with Dr. Osgood, and that I have the most entire confidence in him, as a skilful, experienced, and judicial physician.

I remain respectfully your most ob't. serv't.
WM. A. FLETCHER.

Cash for 20,000 Bushels OF WHEAT,

At the Empire Mills.

WE are prepared to pay CASH and the HIGHEST PRICE for 20,000 bushels of good merchantable Wheat.

Farmers and Teamsters will save themselves much trouble and expense by driving directly up to the STONE MILLS and unloading; they will always get the highest price, and avoid the annoyance of being pestered by the barkers and whipper snappers from the Stores, who now infest our streets and are such a bore to all who bring wheat to our market. We are not much given to boasting; but as some of our neighbors are talking of wanting 10,000 bushels of wheat, we would inform wheat raisers that we can take in 20,000; as our Mill, besides being the best, is the biggest, the highest, and the strongest in the country. We have a convenient WAGON-YARD and STABLE, for teams coming to the Mill, and a HOUSE for the Teamsters; we always furnish feed for the horses, and occasionally throw in Supper and Breakfast for their drivers. This is nothing new with us—we have always thought it our duty to do so, and should not now mention it if our neighbors had not set the example.

We keep constantly on hand FLOUR OF THE BEST QUALITY and all kinds of Mill Stuff; and promptly grind every thing in the shape of Custom Work—always excepting White Oak Tan Bark, or the "face of the Poor."

Mammoth Cave.

HERE we are again at the [illegible] stand, the extreme Eastern store, on Columbia street (North side) with more and cheaper GOODS than we ever offered in this market. It has been said by some of our friends that we have more Goods than we can sell, but they do not understand how exceedingly low we design selling them. We are determined to sell at prices that will compete with any in this market, and that too without standing in the street to hail every person to buy our Goods. It has been a matter of speculation with men engaged in the Mercantile business, whether it is possible to sell goods in an equitable manner or not, or in other words, whether it is possible to sustain A One Price Store, where all could buy goods without fear of paying an Extra Price to make up for the loss on a [illegible] sale. The subscribers would say to the public that they have been engaged for the last eighteen months in endeavoring to solve the above question and it is with great satisfaction that we now promulgate the fact that the plan of selling goods at a small advance and uniform price works well, we take this method of informing our customers that we feel grateful for the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed and the public generally, that we have a full and complete stock of

The Parlor Magazine.

J. T. HEADLEY, EDITOR.

THIS Magazine, formerly under the care of R. D. Mead, commences its Fourth Volume under the editorship of J. T. Headley, author of "Napoleon and his Marshals," "Washington and his Generals," "Letters from Italy," &c. &c. We hazard nothing in saying that this Magazine is destined to fill a large place in public estimation; that it will not only maintain its present enviable reputation, but earn for itself a far higher popularity, and become the companion of many a circle to which it is now a stranger, gladdening by its presence, while it exerts an influence pure, elevating and healthful. The editor will bend his energies to make this THE MOST POPULAR MAGAZINE of the day, and while availing himself of assistance from the best writers, he will draw freely from his own exhaustible store.

It will continue to maintain its high moral tone, and nothing will be admitted into its columns which will minister to the corrupt passions and tendencies of youth, or which the author "dying would wish to blot."

The design is to offer the public a Magazine containing all the attraction and interest of the lighter periodicals, while it moves in a different path, and is not exposed to the same objections.

It is issued monthly, commencing with May containing 32 pages of original matter, printed on fine paper, in handsome covers, with a splendid steel engraving, and colored flower in each number, with occasional music and is got up in every respect in the best style of the art, making a yearly volume of 384 pages, full of choice articles, and forming an elegant ornament to the parlor table, or a rich and valuable present to a friend.

Back numbers and volumes always on hand.

Price only $2 per year, if in advance. 3 copies for $5. 8 copies for $12.

The Press and the public are daily awarding us the very highest testimonials of the editorial ability of our Magazine, and the beauty and taste with which it is embellished, placing it in the very first rank in every respect, among the thousands of which we select the following:

"Mr. Headley's lively and versatile pen is admirably fitted to give a charm to a work like this."—New York Evangelist.

"Under the editorial charge of J. T. Headley, the most popular writer of the age, we predict a still stronger interest will be taken in this already well-known and valuable Magazine.—The name of Headley alone is a sure guaranty of success."—Farmer and Mechanic.

"The new editor has infused that intense and absorbing interest into its pages for which his writings are remarkable. The work has gained in the power which enchains the sympathies and rivets the attention, without losing anything of its former chaste and elevated morals and style."—Waukesha Co. Democrat.

"We wish this Magazine much success under its present guardianship."—Advocate and Journal.

"The editor is well known as one of the most brilliant writers of the day."—American Agriculturist.

"Their motto is to mingle the beautiful with the good."—N. E. Review.

"Mr Headley contributes to the present May number liberally in his usual pleasing style."—N. Y. Tribune.

"His talents will add greatly to the interest of the publication, and his great influence in extending its circulation."—Christian Intelligencer.

"This very neat monthly is gaining favor, refining and softening the roughness of life, and blessing the family where it alights; 'Esto perpetua'".—Massachusetts Eagle.

"This is unquestionably the best Magazine of its kind in the country."—Nantucket Inquirer.

"Beautiful as it is valuable."—Lutheran Observer.

FRESH ARRIVAL OF

ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

A Knowledge of the value of these Pills is alone necessary to bring them into general use as a family medicine. Thousands have already used them, who give them a decided preference to all other kinds. The proprietor is so confident of their virtues that he has instructed his agents that in case any person after giving them a trial, does not prefer them to Gregory's, Lee's, Peter's, and all other anti-billious Pills, if the the trouble will be taken to return the balance of the box, to refund the whole money. They are not like many of the quack medicines of the day, held up as an infallible cure for all diseases, but if timely administered, will be found very efficacious in Billious and remittant fevers, fever and ague, costiveness, cholic, worms, pain in the bowels, flatulency, indigestion, heartburn, pain of the head, back or breast, &c.

We the undersigned citizens of Seneca county, Ohio, have made use of St. John's Pills, either ourselves or in our families, and consider them the best Pills in use for the Billious diseases of this western country:

Wm. Lang, Prosecuting Attorney; U. P. Cumrod, Sherriff; W. H. Kessler, County Recorder; John Rosenberger, Isaac Mundy, Geo. Stoner, and Isaac Wiseman, Justices of the Peace; Israel P. Haines, Joseph Volmer, Solon Graves, John Shinefelt, John Michael, P. Beaver, Alexander Ingram, James D. Benn, W. Gagher, Michael Redbound, James C Pease, S. P. Appleton, John Pride, L. M. Loomis, J. W. Patterson, Thomas Loyd, Isaac DeWitt, John Wander, Abraham Smith, Benjamin Tomb, G. Cornelius, C. Y. Pierson.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The great demand for these pills has already induced unprincipled men to counterfeit them. The public are therefore cautioned against purchasing any that are not signed by the proprietor with a pen upon the wrapper enclosing each box. To connection which is a State's Prison offence.

☞ Price 25 cents.

GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY

DR. G. C. VAUGHN'S ADVERTISEMENT for 1847.—THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY—Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture.—This valuable Panacea is now being introduced into Europe, the East and West Indies, South America and all other parts of the globe, where disease exists in any form. The United States and the Canadas have for the past three years severely tested the virtues which the proprietor, upon the introduction of this medicine, hesitated not to say it possessed. In introducing this GREAT VEGETABLE REMEDY, the most startling promises were made, on the part of the medicine—so novel was the theory—the principles upon which the cures were to be effected, that people threw up their hands and cried, what next! Even credulity, startled with surprise, and the so called "Faculty" made themselves merry over the "new humbug." But mark the result—the three years have passed away—public opinion, the voice of millions, and more of observing individuals, have stamped this REMEDY the most singular, wonderful, incomprehensive, and miraculous curative power ever produced. The ONE GREAT DISEASE, which the proprietor of this medicine had the presumption to say existed, and that ALL various diseases were but secondary, has now millions of believers.—They must believe, for they have witnessed the effect of this restorative. It has conquered ALL cases, by simply conquering the ONE. The "Old School" now open their eyes. Their old dogmas, like the morning mist, fly before the light of truth, and common sense now seeks a road to health its own way, instead of closing its eyes, and being led. The truth of the principle upon which this article cures is established, and the statement is again boldly, most emphatically, most decidedly reiterated: This medicine will drive from the body every disease which has a name—every disorganization of the system which can exist. If bone and muscle remain, this medicine will restore to a perfect state. The old calomel, bleeding, blistering system is about to fall. The proof daily presenting itself of the truth of our theory, is a prop out of the old structure, which will soon tumble to the ground, a shapeless mass of ignorance and deception.

Invalids resort at once to this medicine. It is a strictly vegetable remedy, the product of our own soil—a compound of twenty two ingredients. Each root has its particular part of the system to act upon, and this action is always produced—its effect upon the whole system is immediately apparent. Testimony of the highest character is daily coming to the proprietor full of truth, and you will always see names, places and dates. Not a particle of false evidence is offered on the part of this great curative. The most careful perusal of the pamphlet is desired. It gives the character of all the secondary complaints which prevail, and which have been cured by this article. Evidences of cures in some of the most dreadful cases of lingering complaints which it has been the fortune of any medicine to cope with. Be found—cases which have been left to die. Hundreds in every large city of our Union and the Canadas have to thank this article for their lives, and so do they, as letters in the possession of the proprietor will show.

This great medicine will cure DROPSY, in every stage; Gravel, and all kinds of difficulty in the urinary organs; complaints of the kidneys, weakness of the back; female irregularities immediately checked, and a healthy tone given to the system. Let every female at once resort to this safe medicine, and use no other. Diseased liver, indigestion, billous complaints, dyspepsia instantly relieved; rheumatism, gout, &c., produced by impurities of the blood, will always find relief; inflamed lungs, cough, even consumption, unless the patients and their medical advisers were deceived, has been cured by this medicine; scarlatia, and all eruptive diseases, piles, erysipelas, inflammation of the eyes, palpitation of the heart, sick headache, jaundice, fever and ague—the whole catalogue might be named—seek this remedy; buy no other.

Put up in 30 oz. bottles, at $2; 12 oz. bottles, $1 each.

Be careful that you are not imposed upon.—Each bottle has the words "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture" blown upon the glass—the written signature of "G. C. Vaughn" on the directions, and G. C. Vaughn, Buffalo, stamped on the cork. None others are genuine.

Prepared by Dr. G. C. Vaughn, and sold at the principal agency, 207 Main street, Buffalo, at wholesale and retail, to whom all communications must come post paid.

Smith's Tonic Syrup.

FOR THE CURE OF AGUE AND FEVER OR CHILLS AND FEVER. This remedy has now been extensively used throughout the west and south-west for the last seven years and within that period has permanently cured over 200,000 cases, in all its various forms, many of which had been from one to three years standing, and had resisted all the usual remedies known in this country, and in no case did this medicine fail where the directions were followed properly. Such is its invariable success that a large number of respectable practitioners of medicine, in various parts of the country use and prescribe it in preference to Quinine and all other remedies.

The public are assured that it is not only certain in its effects as a tonic, but, being composed entirely of vegetable medicines, is perfectly innocent in any cases or circumstances, and may be given to females, infants, and all persons of debilitated and delicate constitutions, without the least fear whatever of any unpleasant effect.

This medicine is composed of articles of the purest and purest quality, and is always made by the proprietor in person, after the established forms of pharmacy, (which cannot be said of the various Tonics now flooding the western and south-western country,) and in this respect alone is rendered greatly superior to the remedies usually prepared and sold in this country.

By its sedative and powerful diaphoretic properties, added to its Tonic qualities, it is rendered eminently superior to Quinine and other remedies, as a general and popular Tonic in all cases wherever where Tonics are proper to be administered. The proprietor would therefore respectfully invite practitioners and the public generally to give it a fair trial, and they will then be convinced of its great superiority over all other remedies now in use for the purposes specified.

For the satisfaction of those not acquainted with its valuable curative powers, the following letters and certificates are given from the many in his possession:

We, the undersigned, do hereby cheerfully certify, that we have sold largely Dr. Smith's Tonic Syrup in our neighborhood, and in very many cases have seen and known it taken among our customers, and from what we have seen and known of its use, do, without hesitation recommend it to our friends and the public generally, as the most speedy, permanent and innocent remedy that we have ever seen or heard of in the cure of Ague and Fever or Chills and Fever, and we do believe that it will in no case fail to cure if the directions are properly followed.

THE EXPLOSION OF A GUN-COTTON FACTORY.—Feversham, Saturday night.—Messrs. Hall's works cover an area exceeding twenty acres in extent. The gun-cotton manufactory, which has only been in work about six months, is situated in that portion of the premises known as the Marsh Works, which form the northern boundary of Messrs. Hall's estate.—These works, until the manufacture of gun-cotton was commenced, were used as powder-mills, and two of the four buildings, of which the range consists, are still used for the same purpose. Each of these buildings occupies an area of about forty feet square, and they are severally divided from each other by mounds of earth about forty feet high, having a base of about the same extent, after the fashion of ordinary powder-mills—these mounds being intended to prevent the explosion of one building affecting either of the adjoining erections.

The buildings are very massive, the brickwork of the walls being eighteen feet thick.—They consist of one floor only, and those which are devoted to the manufacture of the cotton are divided into four compartments, known as the drying room, the packing department, the labeling department, and the cooperage, so called. Inserted in the wall of the drying-room is an immense iron chamber, or cauldron, of a slightly conical form: this receives the heat from the furnace and communicates it to the drying-room, where the important process of drying the cotton is carried on. No fire whatever is allowed to exist within the building, and the same precautions as to the non-admission of the workmen in shoes, &c., generally adopted in powder-mills, exist in the building devoted to the gun-cotton manufacture. The process of preparing the cotton may be thus briefly described:

The web is first steeped in a solution of acids, after which it is washed in clean spring water; it is then drained of all the moisture it contains and taken into the drying room, where it is carefully dried and subsequently packed in cartridge paper tubes, in which form the article is sold. The steeping process is carried on in a separate building, erected for the purpose, in the rear of the stove (No. 4.)—This building contained some massive cauldrons and other machinery.

On Wednesday morning, just previous to the explosion, the works were in full operation. Between forty and fifty persons were employed in the two cotton stoves in the steeping department. Nothing seems to have occurred calculated to occasion the slightest apprehension up to the moment of the accident taking place. As near as can be ascertained, about a quarter past eleven, while the work people employed in the (No. 4. stove) were actively engaged, the explosion occurred.

The effect, a few moments after it took place, can scarcely be imagined. The No. 4. stove was literally blown to atoms. Of the massive brickwork forming this structure, not one brick remained upon another; and, marvellous as it may appear, the earth, to the depth of five or six feet beneath the foundation, was torn up and rent into chasms, as if by the shock of an earthquake. The materials, rising fast into the air to an immense height, fell in different directions, and a large portion clearing the mound of earth which separated the buildings Nos. 4 and 3, came with great violence on the roof of the latter. This was but the work of a moment, and the next instant the stove, (No. 3.) the contents of which had, beyond a doubt, ignited from the fallen materials of No. 4, exploded in a similar manner. With the exception of the chimney, which is still standing, this building is reduced to a wreck. Nos. 1 and 2 (still used as powder mills) were extensively injured, and almost wholly unroofed; while the building in which the steeping process is carried on, situated as before stated in the rear of No. 4, was blown completely down, and the massive machinery which it contained hurled into a stream which skirts the northern boundary of the premises.

Of the unfortunate beings at work in the building No. 4, scarcely a vestige was discovered near the scene of the explosion.—Arms, legs, and portions of shattered trunks were thrown in every direction, and, in some cases, to an incredible long distance. The remains of the unfortunate creatures engaged in No. 3 were less mutilated. Some of the parties in No. 3 were extricated alive. One youth, named Bunting, had a most miraculous escape. He was busy at work when the explosion took place and having momentarily lost his senses by the shock, on recovering, found himself buried up to his middle in ruins, though without having sustained any serious injury. Some of the poor wretches seriously mutilated in this building met a miserable end, being burned to death before they could be extricated.

The extraordinary effect of the explosion on the buildings in the neighborhood and on the corn fields in the vicinity, cannot possibly be realized except by an eye-witness. The roofs of the buildings within about a quarter of a mile of the explosion are completely stripped of their tiles, and the walls are much shaken. Even in the town of Feversham, fully a mile distant from the scene of the disaster, windows were broken and the houses otherwise damaged, in some instances. On the opposite side of the stream which forms the northern boundary of the Marsh works, is a field of wheat of some extent. the explosion has completely blasted this over a space of about two acres; and the ears, drooping and discolored, present a scene of desolation in perfect character with the adjoining ruins.

The willow trees which skirt the bank of the stream referred to, and, indeed, all the trees within about fifty yards of the buildings Nos. 3 and 4, are torn up by the roots and scattered about in all directions. Those more distant are less seriously injured, but the foliage of all within a very large circle is wholly destroyed. Another remarkable instance of its power was shown in the forcible ejection from a deep well of two massive pumps, the leaden pipes of which, nearly twenty feet long, were drawn up and thrown to a very considerable distance.

The explosion was heard at an enormous distance from Feversham. At Denland Maidstone, and even at some places more than thirty miles from the scene of the accident, parties are described to have heard it distinctly.

It may be interesting to state that the strength of gun cotton is just six times that of gunpowder; in other words, ten drachms of the cotton are equal to two ounces of powder.—Morning Chronicle, July 19.

Improvements in Manufactures.—The Scientific American announces a revolution in calico printing as at hand; house paper is to be printed so cheap that blacking must be done away. Instead of two or three weeks now required to engrave a copper roller of the highest finish, the inventor, with a few diamond pointed gravers and acids, gets up one in as many hours. He has also invented a machine for shearing cloth, which shears five or six hundred pieces in a day, and does the work better than is now done by the old process.

From the Cleveland Plaindealer.

THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN—THE SOUTH ORGANIZING.

What is to be the complexion of parties or the character of issues in the next presidential campaign, it is difficult now to tell. We live rapidly in times like the present. Events crowd upon events, and questions and issues come and go in such quick succession, that it would be unsafe to day what would be the ruling consideration for action to-morrow.

But one thing is quite clear, that we are on the eve of a sectional war, the North against the South; a war of words only, and to be decided by the votes of the people. In every political assemblage of the South, we find this issue boldly presented, and among the people a fierce determination to have it met.

The Democratic State Convention of Alabama met a few days since at Mobile. The Hon. R. W. King, presided, and made a speech upon the paramount importance, at this time, of the slavery question, and the necessity at this time for harmony and union in the South. The Montgomery Advertiser of the 8th inst. contains the report of a committee, appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the convention upon state and federal affairs.'

The first resolution recommends the adoption of some efficient system of 'finance and taxation' for the extinguishment of the State debt. The second bears testimony to the salutary operation of the Independent 'Treasury system.' The third is in condemnation of the 'obsolete idea.' The fourth, fifth, and sixth, are Free Trade. The seventh approves a vigorous prosecution of the Mexican war 'for attaining the only legitimate end of all war—an early peace, based upon indemnity for the past and security for the future.' The eighth, while it deprecates a war of conquest, expresses the conviction that in adjusting a peace with Mexico, no other mode of obtaining indemnity for the expenses of the war, and for past injuries and aggressions will be available to the United States, except that of receiving from Mexico a portion of her territory contiguous to our own'. The ninth denies the right of the general government to make any discrimination between the States of this Union, by which any shall be deprived of its full and equal rights in such territory.' The tenth condemns the 'Wilmot proviso' as in derogation of southern equality, and tending directly to subvert the Union itself.

The last resolution is as follows:

12. Resolved, That as one of the most effective modes of firm, united and concerted action,' recommended by the above resolutions—of resisting the interference by the general government with a view to establish a discrimination, as degrading as it is injurious, to the slave-holding States—the members of this convention solemnly pledge themselves to each other, and recommend to their fellow citizens in these States to withhold their votes for the office of President of the United States, from any citizen who shall not previously to the election, distinctly, unequivocally avow his opposition to all such inferences.'

This language is plain and emphatic. The South claim the right to carry slavery not only into Mexico, but into Oregon; and the man who does not distinctly and unequivocally' acknowledge this right, cannot be supported for the Presidency by southern votes.—This too, is the doctrine of a Democratic State Convention, in a Democratic State. As a Democrat, and an independent journalist of the north, we eschew all such doctrines.—They form no part of the Democratic creed, either in the west or the north. Mr. Calhoun, and his sect of slavery propagandists, can take whatever course they choose. The Democratic party are stronger without them than with them.

JOHN TYLER HEADING THE WHIGS.

After many abortive efforts upon the part of the whigs to head John Tyler, it seems that he has at length succeeded in turning the tables upon the hopeless party. We give the story as we heard it:

"It seems that during the last winter or spring, a country court in Mr. Tyler's county, composed of several Whig Justices of the Peace, with a view to mortify and humble Mr. Tyler for his political sin of turning Democrat, appointed him overseer of a road, with the intention of enforcing the duties, or imposing the fine in which case made and provided in the statute.

"The law of Virginia it seems, specifies no limited time for working on and repairing roads, but its terms declare they shall be put and kept in order. Accordingly, Mr. Tyler being notified of the honor conferred, set about to discharge his duty. To the delight of his patron Justices and whig brethren, he was seen riding through the district, summoning the hands to work. The joke was too good to be lost, and many a whig countenance was lit up with smiles at the thought that the ex-President was at length harnessed to such a mortifying duty. Old John, however, had too often dodged their tenders to be headed by the small fry.

"He commenced his labors as a faithful public servant. The road was undulating, he determined to cut down the hills, fill up the gullies and ravines, and make it a good level turn-pike road. Day by day he plied himself to his work; hills and vales attested his industry. The effect of his diligence was not only visible upon the road itself, but the neighboring farms began soon to show that just in proportion as the road succeeded, fences, ditches, hedges, ploughing, carting, and every other plantation service was neglected. For this there was no remedy. The hands were all upon the road. The joke became in truth, a serious matter. A public meeting of the whole neighborhood was called. Headed by the august Justices, they proceeded to the scene of operations and begged Mr. Tyler for God's sake (or their cause (and perhaps for the sake of Ireland) to quit working on the road, and let the hands go home. Mr. Tyler replied that the law made it his duty to put the road in good order and keep it in such. There were yet a good many bad hills to be cut down and ravines to be filled; till that was done, he felt it his bounden duty to go on. He should dislike to be presented to the grand jury for neglect of duty immediately after his appointment." The Justices promised to excuse him if he should be indicted before them. "He preferred to place himself above the clemency of the court." The Justices then begged him to resign. Mr. Tyler replied that offices were hard to obtain these times, and having no assurances that he should soon obtain another, he could not think, under the circumstances, of resigning."

"It is said he kept the hands at work upon the road, widening, excavating, filling, gravelling, and McAdamising, for nearly 3 months, making one of the finest roads in the Union. It is thought by many that the road will not need repair for the next century. Wonder if the whigs will make another effort to head him?"—Raleigh Standard.

WISCONSIN.—Moses W. Strong, of Iowa county, is the democratic candidate for delegate to Congress.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

ANOTHER "CHILLING SHOWER-BATH."—In the last Charleston (Va.) Spirit of Jefferson, we find the following damper upon whig hopes. It needs no comment:

A CORRECTION.—We have seen a paragraph circulating among several of the whig papers of the country, to the effect that Lieutenant Washington, of the Virginia regiment, who is now on furlough at home for his health, has written a letter to the Charleston Free Press, in which he says that General Taylor is a whig—opposed the present tariff and the sub-treasury—and ready to run, of course, as a full-blooded whig candidate. We are authorized to say that Lieutenant Washington—[himself a whig, we learn—ENQUIRER.]—has never addressed such a letter to the "Free Press," or any other press, and denies that General Taylor, from conversations he has heard from him, ever declared himself a whig, and opposed to the present measures of the democratic party. So far from it, General Taylor expressly declines being a party man, and expresses his unalterable determination not to identify himself with either party. If the people elect him, he is willing to serve them; but it must be of their free and unsolicited pleasure, and not through any instrumentality of his own. As with this rumor, so we presume with the hundred others, which declare Gen. Taylor to be a whig, where there is not one shadow of proof to sustain it. The party of expedients have already driven themselves to the wall by their too eager haste and utter recklessness and inconsistency. What next will be their move?"

In corroboration of the above statement regarding General Taylor's politics, we can state, that in a conversation a few days since, with a well-known citizen of Indiana, who was an officer in one of our volunteer regiments in Mexico, he informed us that he had put the question direct to General Taylor, who, in reply, said to him, that he did not profess to know much about politics, or, to be much of a politician, but that he considered himself a Jeffersonian democrat. Our readers can draw their own inferences.—Indiana State Sentinel.

"FIRE IN THE REAR."—The New York Tribune asserts that General Scott's proclamation to the Mexicans, is a plagiarism from General Bonaparte's celebrated Egyptian document. The Tribune opens thus:

'The fac-simile of the document (Proclamation) will be found in the address of a certain Propagandist of a preceding generation to the inhabitants of a nation he came to subdue and fraternize.'

After which, the editor gives several extracts from each, in comparison, which it must be admitted, show a close analogy, and then, in conclusion, remarks:

"It strikes us the coincidence is too remarkable to be casual, history, it is true, affords examples of extraordinary correspondence in ideas and expressions between the productions of different ages and countries; but none, that we recollect, where not only the groundwork but the superstructure are so startlingly alike. The suspicion then is naturally awakened in the mind, that one production must be an imitation of the other; and according to the legal maxim that priority in time is conclusive of right, the merit of originality must be awarded to the Corsican.

"Nor is American imitation confined to mere appropriation of words, expressions, or ideas—it proceeds in conduct with equal fidelity. Napoleon while in Egypt, dressed like a Mussulman, swore like a Mussulman, turned his face to the East and prayed like a Mussulman—and our General, with equal liberality in religious sentiment, acts the Romanist, throughout, even to the holding a lighted taper in his hand for public admiration.

This 'fire in the rear,' although a singular one, must be exceedingly annoying to Scott's friends; as it proves that the so much dreaded catastrophe the General feared some time previous to going to Mexico, is only ripening into an explosion the like of which has not before happened to a public or military man.

Difference in the quantity of Milk.—Farmers in general are not aware of the great difference there is in the richness of the milk.—In butter dairies, especially, this is a point which deserves attention. The mere fact that a cow gives a large quantity of milk, is scarcely any evidence of her value for the production of butter. It is but a short time since we heard a farmer state that he had a cow which would give from 20 to 22 quarts per day, and he had till last summer, always considered her a first-rate cow; but it then happened that her milk was set separately for butter, when it was proved that only about four ounces per day could be obtained. This may be called an extreme case; but let the milk of various cows be fairly tried, and a surprising difference will often be seen. Mr. Newell, in his address before the Essex County (Mass.) Agricultural Society, observed that, according to his observation, there is much less uniformity in the milk of what we call native cows than in that of the Ayrshire and Alderneys. He says:—"A few years ago I made a little experiment to test the quality of the milk of sixteen cows. A gallon of each cow's milk was set by itself, and, after standing twenty-four hours, the cream from each was churned by itself, and the quantity of butter ranged from 3 to 9 ounces." Thus it is seen that while the milk of some cows afforded a pound of butter to every 8 quarts, it required more than 21 quarts of the milk of some others to make that quantity. Will not this fact be remembered?—Alb Cul.

THE VALUE OF A PRINTER.—It is difficult to ascertain the real worth of the individual, if he be of the lighter complexion—such rarely being brought to the hammer. In Morocco, however, a white man will sell for five dollars or thereabouts, and the price may vary in other countries. The N. O. Delta, however, tells the following story, which serves to illustrate:

"Yesterday a good looking typo who belonged to the 1st Indiana regiment, related to us the following incident: Some time ago, last summer, we believe, Mr. Cordon Donovan, now in this city, the former editor of the Wabash Standard, published in Lafayette, Indiana, was clerking it on a steamboat on the Rio Grande. One day while the boat was taking in wood, our editor, with a couple of friends, went on shore for the purpose of shooting armadillos, or any other Mexican game that they might meet with. When but a short distance from the boat, they were surrounded and captured by some thirty Mexicans. One of these fellows, who could speak a little English, found out that the unfortunate editor was a printer by profession, and he immediately seized upon him as a precious prize.—Knowing his value, he set a price upon his head, and he was finally knocked down for the sum of $850! Good Heavens! that an editor should be sold so low! The poor fellow was marched off to Valladolid, the capital of Mechoacan, and sent into a Mexican printing-office in that lovely city, to set up villanous Mexican type. After working some time, he succeeded in escaping, and just before the battle of Cerro Gordo, he managed to fall in with Gen Scott's army, when he was quite at home." Who will have the temerity to say after this, that editors are not bought and sold?"

REPORTED CAPTURE OF MEXICO.

There have been reports in circulation for a few days past that General Scott had taken the city of Mexico, on the 17th July, after a severe fight in which the Americans lost 500 killed and wounded. Other accounts represented that Santa Anna and General Canalizo had quarrelled about the right mode of defending the city, the latter being in favor of meeting the enemy at some point on the road, as to attempt any defence in the city would be unavailing and lead to its destruction by the Americans. In consequence of this disagreement, General Scott was said to have entered Mexico without serious opposition.

Both accounts are unfounded, or at least premature. We give below the latest accounts, by which it will be seen that General Scott had not entered the city on the 30th July, 12 days later than the time of the reported capture.

FROM MEXICO.

Movements of the Mexicans!—More Battles at Hand!!—Previous News not Confirmed!

RICHMOND, Aug. 14.

A letter from KENDALL, dated Puebla, July 30th, says—Mexican Congress assembled—decided incompetent to act in the premises.—SANTA ANNA called another meeting—Generals decided to have another battle—29,000 soldiers.

SCOTT moving—PIERCE arrived. Mexicans have the largest army yet. SANTA ANNA averse—must fight. British Minister interfering.

[The above despatch would seem to contradict all previous reports of Scott's having entered the city. This bears date some 12 days after Scott was said to have marched into Mexico. The prospects now are if the above be true, of which there can be little doubt, that a tremendous battle has been fought ere this, or that the Mexican generals have quarrelled with Santa Anna, and the city been surrendered without opposition in consequence. Be it as it may, the city is undoubtedly ours, or the Mexican Congress has given signs of considering our peace propositions.]

Gen. Taylor was still at the Walnut Springs, with 7,000 men. So soon as his force amounts to 10,000 men, he would advance on San Louis.

A rumor prevailed at Monterey, as early as the 13th ult., that Scott had defeated a large body of Mexicans near the capital, and the latter he is supposed to have taken.

The same accounts were prevalent at Matamoras a few days later.

FORT WAYNE & INDIANAPOLIS RAIL ROAD MEETING.

On Saturday evening last an adjourned meeting was held at this place, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the rail road convention, to be held at Muncietown on the 20th inst. On motion, T. Tigar was called to the chair, and Thos. M. Coombs appointed Secretary. Wm. Rockhill, Esq. explained the objects of the meeting; he stated that the citizens of the counties north and east of Indianapolis were desirous of extending the Madison & Indianapolis rail road north to some point on the Wabash & Erie Canal; that different routes were projected, some of which would intersect [the proposed] Cincinnati and St. Louis rail road; others contemplated uniting with the Whitewater canal at Hagerstown, or Cambridge City; but all looked to an intersection with the Wabash & Erie Canal, at some suitable point. Fort Wayne, he contended, was the most eligible point, and if proper exertions were made by our citizens we might secure it here. The citizens in all the counties on the route were warmly alive to the subject, and ready to do all in their power to secure the completion of the work; he therefore hoped that Ft. Wayne would do her duty on the occasion. Mr. S. Church stated that he had lived in the neighboring counties of Wells and Jay, and had, on former occasions, attended meetings in these counties having this object in view, and assured the meeting that the citizens of these counties were anxious the road sho'd be made, as they looked upon Fort Wayne as their market, and were desirous to have some more practicable mode of access to this point than the present impassable roads afforded. M. Jenkinson Esq. warmly seconded the project, and presented in a forcible manner the advantages that would accrue to Fort Wayne from the construction of the rail road. The trade of nearly the whole eastern and central portion of the State, as far south as Randolph and Delaware, and perhaps even further, would by it be made to centre here. This trade, he contended, would far exceed all that could be hoped for from the north, towards which the public attention had been chiefly directed; and once secured here it would be permanent, and could not be diverted to any other place. He was convinced that this rail road would do more for the trade and prosperity of Fort Wayne than all improvements which could be made.

On motion of F. P. Randall, Esq. ten delegates were appointed to attend the Muncietown convention, with power to fill all vacancies in their number. Messrs. S. Hanna, W. Rockhill, H. McCulloch, P. Hoagland, R. E. Fleming, S. Church, S. Edsall, A. B. Miller, E. F. Colerick, and J. P. Edsall, were appointed said delegates, and the meeting adjourned.

We have been surprised at the indifference manifested by our citizens towards this most important work. We fully coincide with Mr. Jenkinson, that it would add more to our business and wealth than any other work that could be constructed, and would make this place the depot of a large and fertile region, which is now compelled to seek other outlets for its produce. The stock of a rail road running through such a country, could not fail to be profitable, and with proper exertions we think much of it might be disposed of to eastern capitalists. We shall look for the proceedings of the Muncietown convention with much interest.

Sheep Killing.—Fifteen sheep, belonging to Jas. Shoaff, were killed on Wednesday night last, in a field near this city, and seven or eight others badly torn and mangled, by a couple of worthless dogs, belonging to some persons unknown. There are scores of such curs around the town which are of no earthly use to any one, and which it would be much to the public good to have destroyed.

INDIANA ELECTION—THE RESULT.

Six democrats and four whigs have been elected to Congress from this state, as follows:

Democrats.		Whigs.
2d dist.	T. J. Henley	1st dist.	E. Embree
3d "	J. L. Robinson	4th "	C. B. Smith
5th "	W. W. Wick	6th "	—— Dunn
8th "	John Peitit	7th "	Thompson
9th "	C. Catcheart
10th "	W. Rockhill

This is a whig gain of two since the last election, and what is most mortifying, is the fact that both have occurred in strong democratic districts. In the 1st, which gave Mr. Polk a majority of 1072 R. D. Owen, is beat upwards of 400 votes by Embree, whig. We had looked upon Mr. Owen's election as certain, as he is universally acknowledged to be one of the best and ablest men in the state, and had few equals and no superiors in the councils of the nation. He owes his defeat, not to any change in the politics of his constituents, but to a narrow-minded bigotry and intolerance among them, which we had hoped never to witness in this state. Mr. Owen as is well known, formerly held opinions in religious subjects not much in accordance with what is now considered othodoxy, and to this cause his defeat is to be attributed. Shame on the recreant democracy of the 1st district! In the 6th district the matter is still worse: it gave Polk 1491 majority, and now through disagreements and petty squabbles as to who should be the democratic candidate—no less than four conventions having been held—Dunn, whig, is elected by a majority of one vote.

The democrats in the south-western part of the State have done badly. In the 2d district, Henley is elected by only 42 majority while Polk received 556. In the north, we did much better, and there can be no doubt that the democrats of this part of the State are much more reliable, more firmly attached to democratic principles, than their southern brethren.

In the Legislature the Senate will be a tie—25 democrats and 25 whigs; some strong democratic counties in the southern part of the state having elected whig Senators. It is not yet quite certain how the House stands: the State Sentinel claims that it also is a tie, while the Journal claims a whig majority of four. There will be no elections of any consequence to be made by the Legislature this year.

VIRGINIA.—Mr. Meade, (dem.) has been elected to Congress, in place of the late Gen. Dromgoole, deceased.

KENTUCKY.—We have done well in Kentucky—much better than we had reason to expect. Four Democrats and six whigs are elected to Congress, being a democratic gain of one. The Legislature, of course, is whig.—A large majority of votes were given in favor of a convention to amend the constitution.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 11th, sums up the result of the Congressional Election thus:

DEMOCRATS.
1st District	Lynn Boyd.
2d "	B. L. Clarke.
3d "	Samuel Peyton.
9th "	Richard French.
WHIGS.
4th District	Aylett Buckner,
5th "	J. B. Thompson,
6th "	Green Adams,
7th "	Garnett Duncan,
8th "	C. S. Moorehead,
10th "	Jno. P. Gaines.

John P. Gaines, the member elect from the 10th district, is the Major Gaines who is now a prisoner in Mexico.

ALABAMA.—We have by the Cincinnati Enquirer the following. Eight counties which gave Chapman, democrat, for Governor, 7732 and Davis, whig, 2681. There is no doubt of Chapman's election.

Geo. S. Houston, dem., is elected to Congress from the Florence District, and W. R. W. Cobb from the Huntsville Dist.

IOWA ELECTION.

THE FIRST GUN A "SHARP WAKER."—The Iowa State Gazette at Burlington brings us the gratifying news of the redemption of Desmoines county. The whole Democratic ticket is elected by a majority of 70 votes. At the last Autumnal election the whigs carried the county by 120 majority. This is gain enough to redeem the young State from whiggery and possumism, if the balance voted as at the last election.

Lee County —Democratic majority 106 to 125.

Henry—Whig majority 120.

Jefferson—Democratic members of the Legislature elected.

Muscatine—Whig by 8 majority on Congress.

Louisa—Whig Congressmen 100 majority.

Later accounts state that Thompson and Leffler, democrats, are elected to Congress by a handsome majority.

THUNDER STORM.—During the storm on Sunday evening last, the lightning struck the south end of the Palo Alto Hotel on Calhoun street. It struck the building near the roof and descended between the plaster and weatherboarding, tearing off a large share of the weatherboarding and destroying the plastering. Fortunately no one was hurt, although Mr. Myers the landlord and his lady had an almost miraculous escape; they had been sitting on a sofa close to the wall that was struck, and had left it scarcely a minute before the accident occurred. Had they retained their seats, it is probable both might have been killed.

It may seem strange, but it is nevertheless a fact, that there is not a lightning rod in the city. Within the last twelve months several buildings have been struck and more or less injured, but so far no person has been hurt.—With so many warnings before their eyes, we should think our citizens would provide themselves with the safeguard a lightning conductor affords.

THE CANAL LETTING.—We understand that the price at which the jobs were taken, on that portion of canal lying between Coal Creek and Terre Haute, at the recent letting, is about 25 per cent below the Engineer's estimate. The work was very properly given out in small sections, thus avoiding the evils of monopoly, heretofore so loudly complained of.—Lafayette Free Press.

A REVENUE TARIFF.—The Democratic Tariff of 1846 is truly styled a revenue tariff, for it yields a much larger amount to the coffers of the nation than any previous one ever did. By the New York Evening Post of the 7th inst., we learn that the receipts at the custom house in that city, for the week ending on that day, were one million of dollars, all paid in specie!! And this large increase of revenue has been accomplished by a judicious tariff, which, admits foreign goods at a reasonable duty, yet affords such protection to home industry that all branches of trade and manufactures are more prosperous than they ever were under a protective or prohibitory tariff. The working of this new tariff is a clear proof of the correctness of the democratic doctrine, that low duties yield the largest revenue, and are most beneficial to the country.

Member of Congress Dead.—The Hon. Edward Bradley, Member of Congress elect from the Western District of Michigan, died on the 5th inst. at the Croton Hotel, New York.—His remains were taken to his late residence at Marshall, Michigan, for interment.

IRELAND.—The total amount received from the U. S. by the Irish Relief Committee, was about half a million of dollars. The amount of individual contributions from England exceeds two millions of dollars, and the government advanced nine millions sterling, (near $45,000,000) for the relief of the distress in that unhappy country. One-half of the nine millions was given as a donation to the poor and needy, and the other half laid out in works of public improvement, or advanced to landholders, to be expended in the improvement of their lands.

In the London correspondence of the New York Journal of Commerce, we find the following notice of the proceedings in Parliament, on a motion to provide ways and means for the re-payment of the four and a half millions advanced. It certainly does not show such a spirit as ought to exist among the property holders of Ireland at this melancholy crisis. They are willing to wring the last cent from the poor as long as they can find means to pay their rents, but show a hard-hearted indifference to their sufferings, and seek to shift the responsibility of supporting them in times of suffering and distress, to other shoulders. The property holders of that unfortunate country are its greatest curse. It is time some means were adopted to make the real estate liable for the support of the needy and famishing people living on it. Until that is done, the Irish people must continue to suffer all the horrors of poverty, suffering, and famine:

The several measures for the relief of Ireland having passed the two houses, a bill was then introduced for the recovery of public monies advanced by the government in that country. A sturdy opposition manifested itself as soon as the Commons got into Committee thereon, on the part of several of the Irish members, who boldly advanced the doctrine of repudiation, Lord Clements taking the lead. His lordship denounced the claiming of a single shilling that had been advanced, and he declared that they may try as much as they please, even to the enforcement of payment by the bayonet, and then the British government will not succeed. His lordship branded the house and government with cruelty and hard-heartedness, and stigmatized the bill as another specimen of gross injustice towards Ireland.

This extraordinary language created a powerful sensation in the house, astonishment and indignation being visible on every English and Scotch countenance, and also, to their honor, were the same feelings evinced by many Irish members.

When it is remembered that during the last fourteen months £9,000,000 sterling has been advanced, of public money to alleviate the distress in Ireland, and that by this bill £4,500,000 of that amount is to be considered a free grant, whilst the sums lent to landlords upon public works, such as railways, roads, &c. will alone be recovered, astonishment and indignation give place almost to much stronger sensations, arising from the utter absence of thankfulness and gratitude.

The time has now arrived when the land of Ireland must be made to support the poor of that country, and not allowed to remain idle while the indigent are driven into exile or death. At the present moment there are 75,000 Irish paupers in Liverpool supported by the rates of that city, instead of being employed by the landlords of their native country.

The family pride of keeping up the nominal possession of large mansions and vast tracts of land must be abated, and the government ought to sell those lands if the re-payments are not made. It appears that the amassed rental of Ireland is nearly £14,000,000—the net rental £17,000,000—but taking the rental at £11,000,000 in round numbers, the fee simple of land in Ireland would be between £100,000,000 and £200,000,000.

England has certainly much to answer for in the past government of Ireland, but she is improving in her policy, and has, most assuredly, behaved most nobly towards the people of Ireland during the perilous visitation with which they have been afflicted. Still she is bound to look for repayment, and this is imperatively required by the thousands upon thousands of the suffering poor of England and Scotland.

Distress has been severe in many parts of England, and it dwells even now upon parts of the south, but how is it met? What is the immediate relief and remedy? Why, by increased rates upon the land, upon which the people have an inherent right in their calamitous impoverishment to fall back. And then, how are those increased rates to be paid or reduced? By improved cultivation of the soil, which will require the employment of more hands, and get repaid by increased crops and augmented profits. The same plan must be adopted in Ireland. 'There are four millions of improvable waste land in that country, which should be made over to the state, and then resold to persons, under guarantee, who are capable of bringing those vast tracts into cultivation.' Every part of Ireland will be benefited by this process, and the talk about a redundant population will become absurd and determine.

TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.—To-day we are enabled to give the remainder of the proceedings of the Convention:

The resolutions are clear, strong and forcible—at the same time manifesting that just spirit of conciliation and desire for union and harmony—which cannot but be the presage of a glorious triumph.

From all quarters, we learn that the best feeling prevades the democratic ranks. Individual preferences are forgotten, or merged in the higher determination to show that true democrats are above mere personal objects, and that they are for measures, and not the men of the party. This is the spirit to actuate men who are resolved to carry forward the democratic banner, against the active and most insidious efforts of the political opponents.—Wisconsin paper.

Another Whig Falsehood.—The whig papers have been publishing a false and malignant letter from a Rev. McCalla of Kentucky, in which he asserts that the President informed him that he had appointed two Catholic priests (Messrs. Rey and McElroy) nominally as chaplains to the army, but in reality that they might act as spies!! Mr. McCalla was an unsuccessful applicant for the appointment of chaplain, and to this we may attribute this calumny on the President and atrocious slander on the catholic church.

The New York "Freeman's Journal" comments with much severity upon the conduct of the Rev. gentleman. It commences with saying:

"It is nearly two weeks since the Rev. Wm. L. McCalla stated in the public newspapers that the President had told him that Fathers McElroy and Rey had been sent to Mexico, not as chaplains, but as spies. This announcement caused no little astonishment in the public mind, especially in the minds of Catholics, who feel some little concern for the reputation of their religion and of its ministers. It was supposed, however, as a matter of course, that the President would take the earliest opportunity of refuting the slander, and of rebuking its author. Up to the present time, we have looked in vain for anything like an official and direct contradiction of Mr. McCalla's statement."

The Journal then insists upon it that it is nothing but an act of justice to the Catholics to contradict the report, if it were false. But it adds the following, in the way of postscript:

"Just as we are going to press, we perceive, and with great pleasure, that the 'Washington Union' contradicts, and that by authority, the statement of the Rev. Mr. McCalla above alluded to. To our minds this is quite sufficient and satisfactory, for we have no reason to place implicit reliance on the reverend gentleman's veracity. We are delighted, therefore, to perceive that the President has put this (to Catholics) painful question at rest forever."

The Philadelphia Sun contains another letter from the Rev. Mr. McCalla, addressed to President Polk, reiterating the ridiculous statement made by him, of having been assured by the President that the Catholic chaplains, Messrs. McElroy and Rey, had been appointed as spies, and not as chaplains. The letter of Mr. McCalla is altogether unworthy of public notice, abounding in language and charges that would do honor to the vocabulary of the most unchristianized of sinners, rather than a professed minister of peace and good will from God to man. Secretary Marcy comes in for a large share of his denunciation, and all the Catholics, from Bishop Hughes and President Mulledy, down to the veriest sinner in the church, are villified and denounced as if they were the special vicegerent of the lowermost pit. His language is such as to unfit him for the lowest calling that man can be engaged in, rather than that of chaplain, and will be a sufficient justification of the President, in the minds of Protestants and Catholics, of his refusal to appoint him to a chaplaincy.

INDIANA ASBURY UNIVERSITY.—The 9th Annual Catalogue of the Officers and Students of this Institution, has been kindly furnished us by Professor Nutt; from an examination of which, we are gratified to perceive that the University is in a most healthy and flourishing condition.

The Faculty consists of the following gentlemen:

Matthew Simpson, D. D., President, and Professor of Mental and Moral Science.

William C. Larrabee, A. M., Professor of Mathematics.

John Wheeler A. M., Professor of the Latin Language and Literature.

Charles [illegible], A. M. Professor of Natural Science.

Cyrus Nutt, A. M., Professor of the Greek Language and Literature.

Seniors, 10; Juniors, 9; Sophmores, 17; Freshmen, 29; Irregulars, 64; Preparatory, 117.

Sincerely do we hope that the Asbury University may continue to 'grow and prosper'—sending forth, annually, its healthful and invigorating streams of knowledge and virtue, fertilizing the moral soil—and converting the wilderness and waste places into fruitful fields and beautiful gardens; thus diffusing a humanizing and elevating influence among men—and fulfilling, to some extent, at least, its high and holy mission.—Lafayette F. Press.

GEN. TAYLOR.—The annexed letter from Gen. Taylor is in reply to one addressed to him by Peter Sken Smith, Esq., of Philadelphia, with the design of eliciting his sentiments in reference to the political opinions of the Native American party:

HD. QRS. ARMY OF OCCUPATION,
Camp near Monterey, July 9, '47.

SIR—The Prospectus of a native American paper, to be edited by yourself, forwarded to me with attached remarks from you, has been duly received.

Upon the points alluded to in those remarks, and to which members of the Native American party require assent from those whom they favor for the Presidency, I can only say, with all candor, that if elected to that office it must be by the spontaneous will of the people at large, and without agency or pledge on my part in any particular. If ever I fill that high office, it must be untrammelled with party obligations or interests of any kind, and under none but those which the Constitution and the high interests of the nation at large most seriously and solemnly demand.

I do not desire the Presidency, and only yield thus far my assent, to be considered a candidate in the same proportion in which it is desired by the people, irrespective of party.

Your paper—the No. which you were kind enough to promise—will be very acceptable; meanwhile I can only hope it will prove useful to the country.

Very truly and sincerely, your ob't serv't.,
Z. TAYLOR.
Maj. Gen. U. S. Army.
Peter Sken Smith, Esq., Philadelphia, Pa.

☞ By the official vote, published in the Indianapolis papers, George G. Dunn, whig, is elected to Congress over Dobson, in the 6th district, by a majority of 12 votes. We see, by the Bedford Sun, that the vote of Bono township, Lawrence county, which gave Dobson 11 majority, was, from some cause not mentioned, rejected so that Dunn's real majority in the district is [illegible].—*Ath. HYDROPHOBIA.—The following is said to be a notice put in all the papers of Paris, every summer, by the Committee of Salubrity:

TRANSLATION.

1. Any person bitten by a mad dog or any other animal, shall immediately press the wound all around with both hands, so as to extract the blood and [illegible] which might be in it.

2. The person will then wash the wound with Alkali mixed with water, lemon juice, lye, soap, salt water, urine, or even pure water, if no other thing be at hand.

3. During the operation of washing, let some one warm a piece of iron, but not red, and apply it to the wound, deeply, so as to cauterize it.

These precautions well observed, are sufficient to preserve from the horrid effects of hydrophobia.

VERY LATE FROM OREGON AND CALIFORNIA.

The following interesting particulars we find in the St. Louis New Era of the 5th inst:

Among the passengers last night on board the Tributary, from St Joseph, were Messrs. Shaw and Bolder, direct from Oregon. They left the frontier settlement of that country on the 5th of May, and arrived at St. Joseph on the 27th ult., having made the trip in eighty-three days. The company to which they were attached was composed of nineteen persons, three or four of whom stopped on the route. They met with little difficulty on the route, except from the Pawnees, who levied contributions upon them, in the shape of clothes, tobacco, a few mules &c. Their danger might have been more serious had it not been for the invention of an old chief, who gave them the protection of forty of his warriors for a fifteen mile race, and then deemed their services of sufficient value to enforce a further contribution.

These gentlemen inform us that the emigrants to California and Oregon were making very handsome progress, being some twenty-five days ahead of the time usually occupied by the emigrants. One company, DAVIDSON'S was met at Big Sandy, and two at Green River. The Mormons, with six hundred and seventy-six wagons, were met at the forks of the Platte, on their route to California. The Twelve Apostles, as they are called, were at Fort Bridger, and it was understood that the Mormons would not proceed, this season, further than the neighborhood of the Salt Lake. All the emigrants, as we have said, were getting along very well.

At Fort Hall these gentlemen met with Mr. Samuel Brannan, and four others, who had arrived there for the purpose of piloting the emigrants on the route to California. From Mr. Brannan, who is described as the editor of the "California Star," they obtained information up to the 25th of May the most important of which is, that Col. Fremont had been placed under arrest by General Kearney, for disobedience of orders, and ordered to the United States for trial. He either had left, or would leave immediately, for the States.—Com. Stockton was also on his way home.—The American fleet was engaged in operations against Mazatlan, Acapulco, and other towns in Lower California, and the troops had been ordered in the same direction. Gen. Kearney, it was understood, would leave for California in time to reach home in September. Things were not in a very quiet or settled condition.

These gentlemen add, if possible, to the horror of the accounts heretofore received in relation to the sufferings of the emigrating parties which failed to reach California last winter. Seventy-three of them perished in the snow, and from famine, and the living survived only by feasting on their dead companions.

THE GREAT BRITAIN.—Downpatrick, July 14.—Many persons in vehicles of all descriptions, from coach and four down to the humble jaunting car, were at the bay long before the time of high water, to witness the first effort to raise the ship with artificial appliances. At about 9 o'clock she began to move, and in less than half an hour she had evidently attained the water line. The crashing of the descending boxes was very loud, and the falling of one on the sea side, a little before ten o'clock, was tremendous. After the tide began to go back, or between 11 and 12 o'clock, the spars of three other boxes refused the strain, and snapped in two and three pieces, letting the boxes into the water. At low water, we learned on board that the ship rose fully two feet; and that in consequence of the breaking of the first spar alluded to, Captain Claxton and Mr. Brenner did not think it prudent to let her come higher, and about an hour and a half before high water the plugs were drawn, and the water let in.

At this time we were informed there was somewhere about three feet of water in her.—The ship went back about a foot; therefore, she stands another foot higher than she was at first. There has been no trial to-day, but it is said that to-morrow there would be. It was said on board that she was not wanted higher than a couple of feet more. The damaged boxes are not going back; the power with the levers, screws, and fifteen boxes still in place, being supposed ample for all purposes. The southerly breeze sprung up again as we left, and if it freshens it was said no effort could be made, it being above all things necessary to keep her steady.—Newry Telegraph.

IRELAND.—The late Liberator's son Daniel has signified his intention of retiring into private life from the representation of Dundalk.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of Ardagh has addressed a letter to a Dublin paper, stating that the Pope has forwarded a sum of £50 for the relief of the poor in his diocese.

The Cork Constitution notices a rumor that in Skibbereen £2,000 of the relief fund remained unaccounted for, and that an inquiry is ordered by government.

The Limerick Examiner says: "We have been told that in a certain county in Connaught £40,000 of the relief funds remain unaccounted for."

DUBLIN, July 17.—The green crops, so extensively sown, are in a most flourishing state. With regard to potatoes, the accounts are not at all favorable. Whilst the general crop is still unaffected, there are further well authenticated statements of the existence of a disease similar to that of the two preceding years, and occuring in various parts of the country about the same time.

Another good deed of the Roman Pontiff.—The London Daily News chronicles the following:

On the 5th of May, that day being the feast of St. Pius, whose best achievement (his bringing about the battle of Lepanto) once rescued the south of Europe, great doings were planned to honor the name in the person of its present possessor, who bids fair to effect a similar European rescue. Hearing of their projects (for strict orders are issued to inform him of every matter) our monarch at once issued his wish that the waste of blue lights and Roman candles should be superseded by a general distribution of bread. The wish is to be obeyed. Sixty gentlemen met immediately at the Doria place, organized themselves for a combined effort among the affluent, and each member cheerfully climbed the stairs of the palaces allotted him in quest of donations. 7000 dollars were quickly forthcoming, and 60,000 bread tickets put in circulation. The remnant is kept to establish an infant school.

RAILROAD MEETING.

In pursuance of a previous adjournment, a meeting was held at the Court House on Saturday evening the 14th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Fort Wayne, Munciotown, and Indianapolis Railroad Convention to be held at Muncietown on the 20th instant.

Thomas Tigar, Esq., being called to the chair, and Thomas M. Coombs chosen secretary, on motion of F. P. Randall, Esq. a delegation of ten was appointed to attend said convention, consisting of the following gentlemen, viz. Samuel Hanna, William Rockhill, H. McCulloch, P. Hoagland, Robert E. Fleming, Sylvester Church, Samuel Edsall, A. B. Miller, E. F. Colerick, and Joseph P. Edsall.

☞ That is just what we have been saying all along; and if "ALL the papers in South Carolina" go for the old General, rest assured that John C. Calhoun, the "great slavery propogandist" as Mr. Benton calls him, is well satisfied with his views touching the principle involved in the Wilmot Proviso.—Lafayette Free Press.

When we are asked by our readers why we are constantly, week after week, alluding to Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture, we have only to say that with all due allowance to the merits of other articles of the kind, we must say we have been astonished at the success of this Great American Remedy. In all the complaints which belong to the human family, it acts as a curative power of most magical character—this we know. 'Tis true that we are paid for this notice—for the proprietor of the Lithontriptic, Dr. Vaughn, advertises largely with us, but reader we not paid to falsify, and we beg of you to examine his book in the Agents hands and also the Agents themselves if his Remedy is not something of great value.—See our columns.

From the Kenton Republican.

I. L. ST JOHN'S ANTI BILLIOUS PILLS.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that these very valuable pills have found their way into our midst. We are somewhat acquainted with their virtues, and hesitate not in recommending them to the public.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL.—DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE.—The following extract is from the farmers' and emigrant's Hand Book, a valuable work of about 500 pages, recently published by Messrs. Appleton and Co., New York. In chapter 8, page 235, the author speaking of Fever and Ague, remarks:

"There is a most valuable medicine sold in most of the Western cities, which we can conscientiously recommend for Fever and Ague, and other bilious diseases; it is the INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, which is prepared by Dr. Osgood of New York, who has made the bilious disorders of the West his special study. We are no friend to those medicines usually called patent, but we have had ample opportunities of knowing the invaluable effects of the Cholagogue in bilious cases."

The speedy and permanent relief afforded by the Cholagogue, arises from its prompt and healthy action upon the blood, cleansing it from bile and restoring it to purity. Thus striking at the root—its tendency is, not simply to suspend disease, but to remove the cause, on which it depends. It is equally adapted to all ages and all conditions of the system.

PREACHING.

Notice to the Afflicted.

Alexander Tolerton

DEEMS it proper to inform the public that he is alive and hearty and has not left the "Diggins,"—neither does he intend to do so, unless upon professional business—and then he will be speedily back to his office, in attendance upon those who may require his services. He still practices medicine [illegible] upon Botanic principles, and [illegible] as is proved by numerous certificates from the afflicted who had been given up as incurable, but now restored to perfect health and strength. It is now about two years since he established himself in this city, during which time he has prescribed and administered medicine to thirty-eight hundred and eighty-six patients from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan, for which very liberal patronage he returns his heartfelt thanks; and from present appearances he feels great confidence that he will still be favored with the privilege of administering "aid and comfort" to the afflicted, notwithstanding the prejudice that has been sought to be raised against him by some, and the opposition and bitter hostility manifested against him by a portion of the Medical profession.

Doctor Tolerton has made the nature and treatment of disease the study of his life, and he flatters himself that he is able to treat with success in all cases where success is yet attainable, consumption, asthma, bronchitis; inflammation of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels, and kidneys; pleurisy, fever and ague, chill fever, dumb ague, (and no mistake,) remittant, typhus, scarlet, puerperal, inflammatory, and hectic fevers; all billious diseases, epilepsy or falling sickness, apoplexy, giddiness, melancholy, hysteria, hypocondria, palsy, st. vitus dance, dyspepsia, water brash, cholera morbus, and infantum; bowel complaints of children, heartburn, canker, vomiting, dysentery, diarrhea, cholic, cancer, scrofula, ulcers, mercurial diseases, fever sores, white swellings, night mare, palpitation of the heart, piles, jaundice, scurvy, gravel, urinary and secret diseases, acute and chronic rheumatism, rickets, worms, dropsies, spinal affections, inflammation of the brain, paralysis, debility and irritability of the nervous system, pain in the face and side, coughs and colds, internal weakness and falling of the womb, and all the chronic diseases peculiar to females in their various relations of life. These diseases will be treated and cured upon the strict botanic vegetable system of practice, without resorting, in any case, to the use of that "Poison" called Calomel, or any other mercurial preparation. It would be well for those that are afflicted with any of the above diseases, to send for Dr. Tolerton, or give him a call, for he is fully persuaded it will be for their interest to do so. At the very worst it will do them no harm—his treatment is innocent and harmless, and that is more than can be said of the treatment of some that could be named.

He would also observe that it would be well for those afflicted with diseases of the EYES, not to forget him, for his success in the treatment of this delicate member is truly astonishing. Many have been restored by him, whose cases had been given up as hopeless by the celebrated oculist of this city, (as represented by some of the patients.) Dr. Tolerton would embrace this opportunity to say to his friends, and all whom it may concern, that the report, put in circulation by some of his modest FRIENDS, in this city, to the effect that he never went through a regular course of medical instruction in the Medical College of Cincinnati, is wholly unfounded. Seventeen years ago he obtained a Diploma from the [illegible] Medical District of Ohio; a certificate from the [illegible] of the Medical Institute, of his qualifications as a Physician; and a certificate of Membership of the Medical and Philosophical Society of Cincinnati, (all of which are in his possession [illegible]) and has been engaged in the practice of medicine and surgery in all its branches, from that time to the present. He is in possession of a superior apparatus [illegible] will at all times [illegible] calls in [illegible]

In cases [illegible] general Doctor [illegible] Dr. Fetters [illegible] esteemed as a Physician of skill [illegible] in Ohio, where he practiced for [illegible] with eminent success.—His departure was deeply regretted by many who had long employed him as their family physician. Office on Columbia street at the old stand, where either he or Dr. Fetters will at all times be found, unless absent on professional business. They hold themselves in readiness to attend with alacrity, all calls in the line of their profession, by night or by day; and will make it a rule that some one shall always be found at the office.

Fort Wayne, July 15, 1847. 1y2

N. B.—The Uroscopia practice, (or the examination of the Urine) will be strictly adhered to, and all patients from a distance are requested to avail themselves of the first opportunity to send in a specimen for inspection, "that a judgment of the disease may be formed from its appearance," and general satisfaction will be given.

Goods Direct from England

Shawls, Prints, Hosiery, Needlework, &c.

MRS. DYKES invites the attention of the Ladies of Fort Wayne and vicinity, to the stock of Goods she has just IMPORTED from England, and now offers for sale in the store on Columbia Street, formerly occupied by Capt. Morgan. The stock includes an immense assortment of SHAWLS of all sorts, from the huge net shawl at 24 cents, to the most beautiful Cashmeres; Handkerchiefs at 6¼; Gorgeous Plaids, Calicoes, Ginghams, Lawns, &c.—Beautiful Worked Muslin Caps, Capes, Collars, Baby's Dresses, Chemisettes, Footings, &c. &c. A large stock of cotton, silk, and woolen HOSIERY; Leghorn, Birds Eye, Tuscan and English Straw Bonnets; with an endless variety of Fancy Articles, too tedious to mention.

These goods were all purchased by Mrs. D. directly of the manufacturers in England and Scotland, and can therefore be warranted perfect and of the best quality, and will be sold much cheaper than ever before offered in this country, as all the profits of jobbers, merchants, importers, &c., are saved to the purchaser. An inspection will satisfy the most sceptical that greater bargains can be had than were ever before known in the place.

She has also a variety of Toys, &c. for children, Harmonicons, Steel Pens, &c. all of which will be offered at the lowest prices.

Country Merchants can be supplied with Shawls, and several articles not usually to be found in this country, at very low prices.

Mackenzie's Tonic Febrifuge.

AGUE & FEVER

of Intermittent Fever and the various forms of BILIOUS DISEASES Permanently cured by DR COLIN MACKENZIE'S TONIC FEBRIFUGE

Its Infallible Health Restoring Properties fully Established.

It is now known as the All-Powerful

Fever and Ague Destroyer

IN PRESENTING this well established and powerful curative Medicine to the people of Indiana and the citizens generally of the south western States, the proprietors feel full confidence that it will act as successfully in the districts where it is now produced, as in the Ague and Fever visited regions of Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, Michigan, and Western Pennsylvania and New York. In the States above mentioned, its universal celebrity as a certain, prompt and permanent is generally conceded; and it is resorted to by all thus afflicted, in preference to all other preparations claiming to cure this disease.

Remedy for the Ague and Fever,

Volumes of irrefragable testimony might accompany this notice; but the proprietor believes that the true method of apprising the afflicted of the perfectly curative properties of the Tonic Febrifuge, is the trial of its miraculous power over

Fever and Ague.

So far the proprietor has found it only necessary to test its practical and health restoring blessings in the communities where it has been introduced. In the proud testimonials so elicited, the worth of the Febrifuge is made manifest; and it is therefore confidently sent upon its healing errand into the Valleys of the Wabash and Maumee. He sends it there as a Medicine, now regarded in the Northern and Western States as a cure whose progress is undimmed, and

Without a Solitary Failure,

In short, sustained wherever tested, (and the evidences can be furnished, if there any to be found to be sceptical,) as

Ague Breaking, Fever Removing and Health Renewing.

As such, Mackenzie's Tonic Febrifuge is now offered to the Ague diseased of Indiana, and the States adjoining, and to those emigrants and travellers who may be attacked by the Ague and Fever away from their homes and families. It is submitted as an infallible remedy for the terrific local diseases attendant upon our soils, and the miasmatic exhalations arising therefrom.

By properly adhering to the directions accompanying it, or giving heed to the warnings that the system invariably gives in advance of malady, the constitution may not only be rescued from its thraldom to the ravager, but even its stealthiest approaches frustrated before allowed a foothold.

To the prudent, what has been stated above will answer as well as if a volume of eulogy were placed before them. To all those who resist this invitation to try a remedy that has always succeeded whenever applied, the only words that can be said, are—

The wise man prospers on the fool's downfall,
'Tis wisdom's part, to break disease's thrall.

TESTIMONIALS

OF THE EXTRAORDINARY EFFICACY OF

DR. Osgood's India Cholagogue,

Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fever, Liver Complaint Jaundice, Enlargement of the Liver, Enlargement of the Spleen, and all the various forms of Billious Diseases.

☞ Extract from a communication of the Hon. WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE, of the United States Senate, late Governor of Michigan:

DETROIT, Oct. 21, 1845.

Doctor Charles Osgood,

Dear Sir:—I have read with much interest your little treatise upon the "causes, treatment and cure" of the febrile diseases which have so extensively prevailed in our country during the last few months—an interest increased, no doubt, by the fact that I have individually suffered so much from them. Though I feel myself very incompetent to judge safely upon a subject so entirely professional, yet your theory seems to me well reasoned, and your conclusions just, and I think withal, that your pamphlet is calculated to produce much practical good.

* * * * * * *

A violent cold, induced by one of those sudden changes in the weather, which I have always found so injurious, resulted in a far more serious febrile attack—the fever, assuming the more painful character of a remittent fever, having become what within a year or two past, I have heard so much of, a "chill fever." The disease continued upon me in despite of quinine and other popular remedies, when Mr. H. [illegible] a bottle of India Cholagogue which you had the kindness to send me. I immediately commenced taking the medicine according to directions, and before I had exhausted the contents of the bottle, was decidedly better.

It fully justified your flattering expectations, and AS A SAFE, CONVENIENT, AND POPULAR REMEDY, MY OWN EXPERIENCE, SO FAR, INDUCES ME TO BELIEVE THAT IT WILL PROVE A GREAT PUBLIC BENEFIT. I am pleased to learn that you have recently established several agencies for its disposition—though I regret that, with a view to a more general dissemination of it, you should have found it necessary to remove from your present residence among us.

With much respect I have the honor to be, &c.
Your obliged servant,
WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE.

☞ From the Hon. WM. A. FLETCHER, Chief Justice Supreme Court of the State of Michigan, to the Agent at Detroit:

Sir,—Having had repeated opportunities during the last year, of witnessing the salutary effects of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, it affords me great pleasure to bear testimony in its favor, as an invaluable remedy in cases of Fever and Ague and Bilious diseases generally. Many persons have come under my observation, of persons who have suffered for years, who have been entirely relieved by the use of one or two bottles of the Cholagogue; and I have not known a single case where relief has not been obtained by its use.

Believing that the general use of this medicine will be of the greatest importance to all persons living in those parts of our country, who are subject to Bilious Diseases, I give it my general recommendation. Nor is the pleasure of this act diminished, by the fact that I am personally acquainted with Dr. Osgood, and that I have the most entire confidence in him, as a skilful, experienced, and judicial physician.

I remain respectfully your most ob't. serv't,
WM. A. FLETCHER.

Cash for 20,000 Bushels OF WHEAT,

At the Empire Mills.

WE are prepared to pay CASH and the HIGHEST PRICE for 20,000 bushels of good merchantable Wheat.

Farmers and Teamsters will save themselves much trouble and expense by driving directly up to the STONE MILLS and unloading; they will always get the highest price, and avoid the annoyance of being pestered by the barkers and whipper snappers from the Clears, who now infest our streets and are such a bore to all who bring wheat to our market. We are not much given to boasting; but as some of our neighbors are talking of wanting 10,000 bushels of wheat, we would inform wheat raisers that we can take in 20,000; as our Mill, besides being the best, is the biggest, the highest, and the strongest in the country. We have a convenient WAGON-YARD and STABLE, for teams coming to the Mill, and a HOUSE for the Teamsters; we always furnish feed for the horses, and occasionally throw in Supper and Breakfast for their drivers. This is nothing new with us—we have always thought it our duty to do so, and should not now mention it if our neighbors had not set the example.

We keep constantly on hand FLOUR OF THE BEST QUALITY and all kinds of Mill Stuff; and promptly grind every thing in the shape of Custom Work—always excepting White Oak Tan Bark, or the "face of the Poor."

Mammoth Cave.

HERE we are again at the old stand, the extreme Eastern store, on Columbia street (North side) with more and cheaper GOODS than we ever offered in this market. It has been said by some of our friends, "A we have more Goods than we can sell, but few do not understand how exceedingly low we design selling them, as we are determined to sell at prices that will compete with any eastern market, and that too without standing in the street to haul every person to buy our Goods. It has been a matter of speculation with men engaged in the Mercantile business, whether it is possible to sell goods in an equitable manner to all, or in other words, whether it is possible to sustain A One Price Store, where all could buy goods without fear of paying an Extra Price to make up for the loss on a previous sale. The subscribers with to say to the public that they have been engaged for the last eighteen months in endeavoring to solve the above question and it is with great satisfaction that we now promulgate the fact that the plan of selling goods at a small advance and uniform price works well, we take this method of informing our customers that we feel gratified for the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed and the public generally, that we have a full and complete stock of Female College.

This Institution received a liberal charter from the last Session of our Legislature, and by the act of incorporation, the management of its affairs is committed to a Board of Trustees with power to confer the highest literary degrees and honors usual in Female Colleges, upon such young ladies as may satisfactorily complete the prescribed course of study.

The first session of eleven weeks will commence on the fourteenth of June next, under the supervision of a sufficient number of well qualified teachers.

The Board of Trustees have procured for the present accommodation of the College, a new and commodious building most eligibly situated in the west end of the town. The boarding departments will be under the control of an experienced Steward and Matron, who are amenable to the Trustees. The teachers and pupils are to board together—and thus form one family. It will be the constant effort of all concerned to make the young ladies who may be sent from a distance to this Institution, feel themselves at home, and to exercise for their comfort, health, morals and manners a parental solicitude.

Until a more extended notice of the course of Instruction pursued in this Institution shall be given, we present the following estimate of
